Nine Military Officers With 10 Machines Leave Naples for Tripoli

ITALIANS EFFECT LANDING

Their Flag Flies Over Sultania Fort Benghazi and Derna Under Fire

LONDON, Oct. 5.—The Italian flag floats over Sultania fort at Tripoli, which is occupied by landing parties. Part of the fleet is anchored in the harbor and the other warships lie a short distance from the dismantled fortifications. Few bodies of Turks have been found among the ruins of the forts, and apparently no great number of Turks were killed by the bombardment. According to a Constantinople report, the Italian warships today bombarded Benghazi and Derna. Rumors of a naval engagement in Turkish waters, of an attack against Mytilene and of the blowing up of the Italian battleship "Conte di Cavour," at Tripoli have not been confirmed from any quarter. An interesting report is current from Constantinople that, while Germany favors the adoption of the Italian ultimatum as the basis for peace negotiations, Great Britain proposes that Tripoli shall become a privileged tributary of the Turkish vilayet under joint "Turco-Italian" administration, thus retaining the suzerainty of the sultan.

Aeroplane Into Service.
NAPLES, Oct. 5.—Nine military officers with eight monoplane and two biplane, will be sent to Tripoli. The vessels will be commanded by Captain "Jazza," who won the air race from London to Venice.

LONDON, Oct. 5.—The Chronicle's Constantinople dispatch from Tripoli says that Italian warships are bombarding Benghazi and Derna, and that the former is vigorously returning the attack.

ATHENS, Oct. 5.—Besides calling out the reservists in Epirus on October 3, the government proposes to mobilize the reserves in Thessaly. The number will be limited to a few thousand, sufficient to protect the frontier against any attempted coup on the part of Turkey.

Withdraws Prevesa Ultimatum.
CORFU, Oct. 5.—The ultimatum of the Admiral Duke D'Abuzzi, threatening to bombard Prevesa, has been withdrawn.

ROME, Oct. 5.—A dispatch from Tripoli says the Italians have occupied the town.

The Giornale d'Italia says that detachments of marines have landed at Tripoli to protect the consulate, the Italian church and hospital.

MALTA, Oct. 5.—Fugitives from Tripoli, who arrived today, say small parties of Italians are landing all along the coast from Tripoli to Benghazi. It is believed, however, that there will be no landing in force until the main expedition arrives. Small bodies of Arabs skirmished with the landing parties.

SPENT $30,000 FOR BEER AND CIGARS

his One Item in Stephenson's Expenses Must Show How Money Was Used

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 5.—When United States Senator Isaac Stephenson found at his expenses for nomination at the primaries in 1908 were running so high at the item for beer and cigars alone amounted to $30,000 and the aggregate is fast approaching the final total of $77,793, he remonstrated and told his campaign managers "I want to win the nomination, but I don't want to buy it."

This was part of the testimony given today before the United States senate committee which is investigating charges that bribery contributed to Senator Stephenson's election. In answer to his complaint Senator Stephenson was told that the three other Republican candidates for the primary election—Ex-Congressman Samuel J. McKim, who spent $42,203, Ex-Senator William H. Hutton, who spent $10,002, and Francis R. McGovern, now governor of Wisconsin, who spent $11,375, were making a hard fight, their expenses finally aggregating $82,268. In testimony with Senator Stephenson's expenses made a total for the public senatorial campaign that year of $191,061.

It was testified by E. A. Edmonds, Stephenson's campaign manager, that the senator usually issued checks for more money when told of the activities of his opponents.

He sometimes was provoked that much money was being spent and

WALLPAPER MEN ARE INDICTED

GOVERNMENT CHARGES A TRADE RACKET

Alleges Manufacturers and Jobbers Slighted 5 and 10-Cent Stores

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 5.—Eight indictments against four wallpaper manufacturers and four wallpaper jobbers, charging a conspiracy in restraint of trade were returned by the federal grand jury here today.

The indicted manufacturers are Winfield A. Huppuch, first vice president of the Standard Wallpaper company of Hudson Falls, N. Y.; Robert F. Hobbs, a director of the Hobbs, Burton and Heath company, Hoboken, N. J.; George Tait, a director of William Campbell Wallpaper company, Hackensack, N. J.; and John McCoy of the York Card and Paper company, York, Pa.

The indicted jobbers are J. B. Pearce, president of the J. B. Pearce Wallpaper company of Cleveland, C. O.; Ater president of the C. Ater and company of Columbus, O.; Norton Newcomb secretary of the Newcomb Brothers Wallpaper company of St. Louis; and Charles E. Maxwell manager of S. B. Maxwell and company, of Chicago.

The indictments charge that Huppuch, Hobbs, Tait and McCoy, constituting a committee representing the Wallpaper Manufacturers Association of the United States, repeatedly met with Pearce, Ater, Newcomb and Maxwell members of a committee representing the National Association of Wallpaper Jobbers in the United States and devised a plan to prevent their products being bought by the 5 and 10-cent stores of the country.

According to the indictments, 37 concerns from coast to coast are members of the Wallpaper Manufacturers association and 27 concerns are members of the Wallpaper Jobbers organization, practically controlling the country's wallpaper output.

Owners of 5 and 10-cent stores from all over the country and two wallpaper jobbers gave evidence before the grand jury.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 5.—Governor John A. Dix was at one time a director in the Standard Wallpaper company of Hudson Falls, whose vice president Winfield A. Huppuch, was indicted in Cleveland today by the federal grand jury. The governor resigned from the directorate prior to assuming office.

Mr. Huppuch succeeded Mr. Dix as chairman of the Democratic state committee following the latter's nomination for governor.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Mayor Has Political Leader Arrested for Bribery

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Oct. 5.—William B. McGuire, a local political leader was arrested today and held under $1,500 bail on a charge of attempted bribery by Mayor Lewis P. Kniffen of Wilkesbarre. It is alleged that McGuire enticed Kniffen's private office today and laid on the desk $4,000 in bills and $25,000 in bonds in an effort to obtain the executive's signature to a franchise granted a new electric light company. Kniffen says he had two witnesses in an adjoining closet who saw the entire transaction and at a signal from the mayor jumped from their hiding place and confronted McGuire.

LAURIER GOVERNMENT HOLDS LAST MEETING

OTTAWA, Ont., Oct. 5.—The last meeting of the Laurier government was held today. The resignations of the ministers will be tendered to Earl Gray, and Robert L. Borden will be invited to form a government. He may have his slate ready and take office at once, as Sir Wilfrid Laurier died in 1910, or he may take a few days to complete his arrangements.

Parliament is expected to meet early in November and finish its business before Christmas.

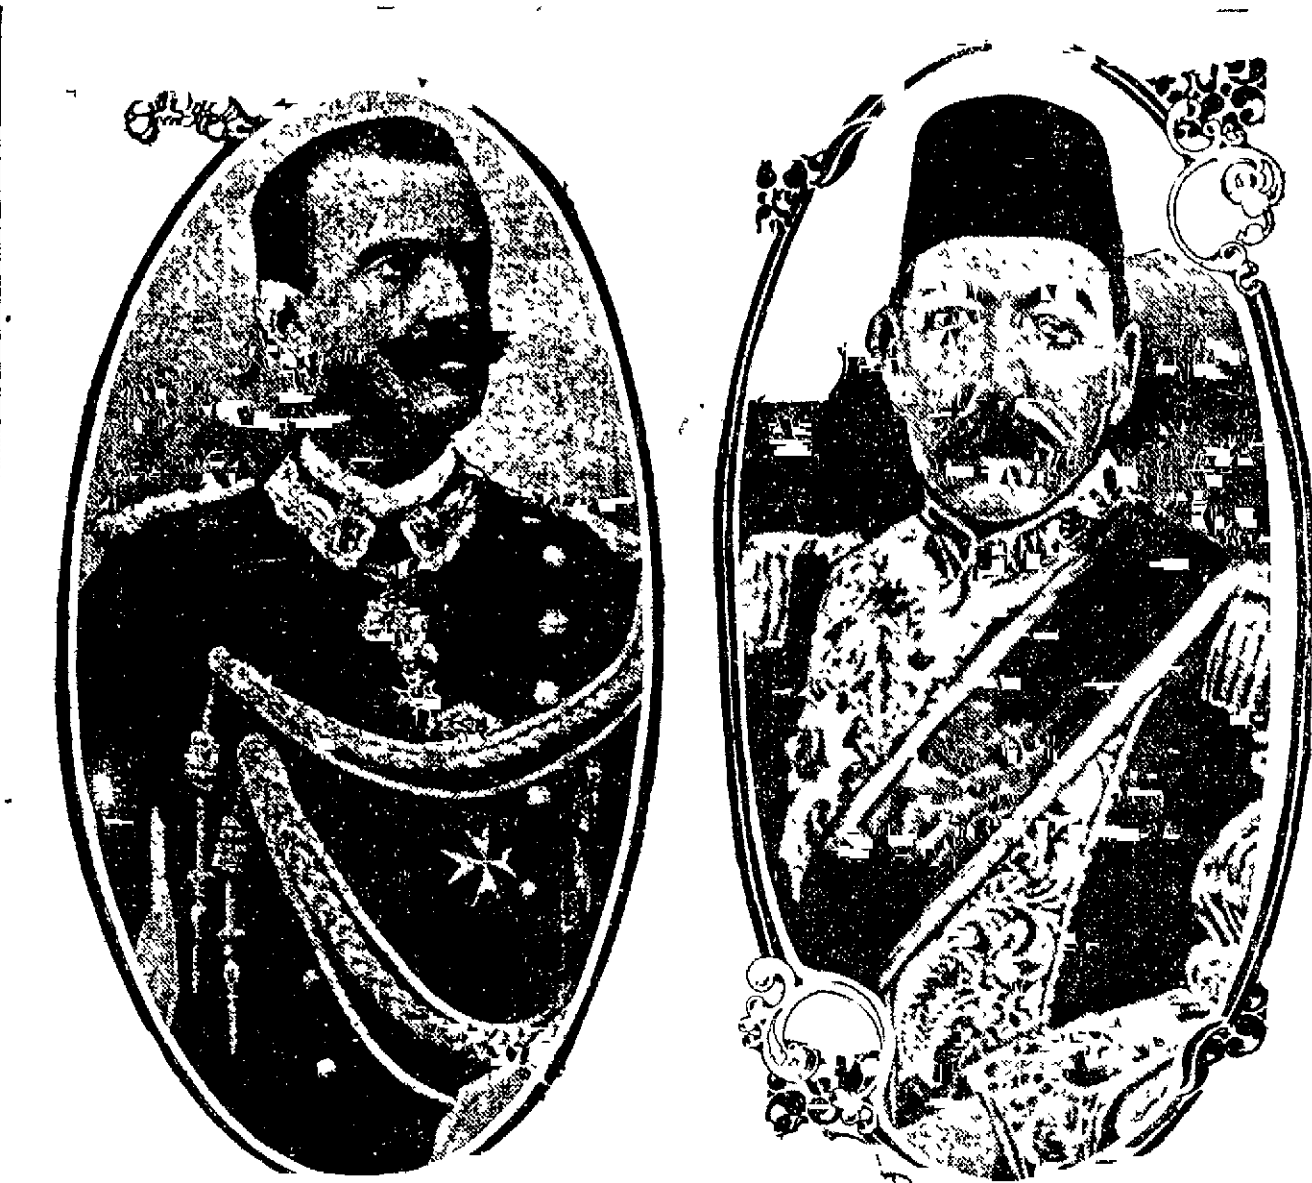

It is almost certain that W. T. White, general manager of the National Trust company of Toronto, will be finance minister in the Borden cabinet, being taken into the Conservative cabinet as representative of the dissatisfied Liberals who voted against the reciprocity agreement.

FLOODS IN GRAND VALLEY

Ouray District and Country Near Grand Junction Suffer From High Water.

OURAY, Colo., Oct. 5.—Heavy rains for the last 24 hours have made the Uncompaghe river higher than at any time in the history of Ouray. The entire district is suffering from high water.

GRAND JUNCTION, Colo., Oct. 5.—Washouts on every side practically isolated the Grand valley from the rest of the world today. Railroad traffic is tied up.

On the left is the sultan of Turkey, and at the right the sultan of the Ottoman Empire, who are now at war. The sultan of Turkey, through his ministers, delivered an ultimatum to the sultan of the Ottoman Empire and demanded a reply within 24 hours. The refusal of the sultan to accede to the demands of the Ottoman government precipitated the war. Italy at once sending warships to capture Tripoli, a Turkish stronghold.

VIGOROUS DENIAL FROM GEN. REYES

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 5.—Gen. Bernardo Reyes, for years the idol of the Mexican army, long a political leader of that republic, and recently a candidate for the presidency against Francisco I. Madero, Jr., tonight emphatically denied stories connecting him with a new revolution in Mexico.

General Reyes arrived here this afternoon from Havana and will leave tomorrow for San Antonio, Tex., where probably he will establish his home.

In a statement tonight, General Reyes admits he will continue to manifest active interest in the political affairs of Mexico, but brands as absurd stories that he plans to establish a revolutionary junta in San Antonio. He was equally emphatic in denying statements that he has formed an alliance with Diaz and the Mexican Socialist leader, Magdon. He declared that he was forced to flee his country because his life was hourly endangered as a result of the growing conditions of anarchy fostered by the recent revolution.

"The people of Mexico are greatly disappointed in Madero," he said. "Not only are the promises of free elections nullified by the action of Madero in previously forcing upon the provisional president the appointment of only Maderistas to office giving Madero control of the election machinery but all other political parties in the republic were openly persecuted. State officials were Maderistas and in every section of the republic the revolutionists retained their arms. This is a constant source of intimidation to other political parties."

RIFLE-MEERK STAGE GOES THROUGH BRIDGE; TWO HURT

MEERK, Colo., Oct. 5.—A Mrs. Hulick, the wife of a Rio Blanco settler, and Leo Mitchell, the driver, were seriously injured today when the Rifle-Meerke stage went through a bridge several miles north of Rifle. Other passengers sustained no injuries beyond a plunge in the cold water.

BOYCOTT ITALIAN GOODS

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 5.—The embargo on coal and petroleum has been raised. The Italian boycott has commenced and porters refused to discharge Italian goods from a British steamer.

The sultan has ordered prayers in the mosques invoking the aid of the prophet against Italy.

JUDGE SANBORN WITNESS IN HIS OWN LAW SUIT

CHICAGO, Oct. 5.—United States Judge A. L. Sanborn of Wisconsin today appeared before Judge Peter S. Grosscup, in the federal circuit court, as a witness in a hearing of Judge Sanborn's claim of $10,000 for attorney fees against the estate of James Stimson, former wealthy banker of Hamilton, Ont.

Judge Sanborn also holds an interest in a claim of $20,000 against the same estate for work done while a member of the law firm of Spooner & Sanborn, the senior member of which was former United States Senator Spooner. Both claims involved claims for work done prior to January, 1905, when Judge Sanborn was elevated to the bench.

The assets of the Stimson estate, it is said, amount to but $50,000. More than 600 creditors who lost their savings when his Hamilton bank failed in 1899, object to payment of the attorney's fees, which they declare excessive.

TRANSPACIFIC WIRELESS COMMUNICATION POSSIBLE

Commercial Company in San Francisco Picks Up Message From Otchisi, Japan, 6,000 Miles Away.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 5.—A commercial wireless in the city did a bit of long-distance message-carrying today, overhauling a call sent out from Otchisi, the most northern Japanese station.

At the conclusion of the message the San Francisco operator called the Japanese station and got an answer.

It is said to be the first time that transpacific wireless communication has been established.

The distance separating the stations is approximately 6,000 miles.

NEAR RIOT AT ST. JOE, MO.

Streetcar Co., Refuses Detached Ticket—Patrons Use Them—Are Ejected—Police Take Hand.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Oct. 5.—The entire police force of the city was called out tonight to quell a riot at Fifth and Edmond streets, the principal street railway junction, which arose over an order issued to street car conductors not to accept tickets detached from books.

For two hours the corner was jammed by people who were trying to ride on street cars and pay their fare with detached tickets. The conductors, aided by extra help, were ejecting the patrons whenever they refused to get off. The police did not interfere until fights started, when they arrested all concerned, both the citizens and the street car employees. More than a dozen arrests were made.

One man, C. L. McFall of Leavenworth Kan., was seriously injured when a conductor threw him from a car.

Chief of Police Hiskell finally took charge of the situation and the crowd dispersed.

The street car company then rescinded its order and there were no more disturbances.

The trouble arose over the fact that newshawks were selling street car tickets with papers. The company in order to break this speculation issued an order that the tickets would only be accepted when not detached from the books. The public seemed to sympathize with the newshawks, for the sale of tickets continued.

Hearing Testimony in Charges Against C. & S.

BRECKENRIDGE, Colo., Oct. 5.—The state railway commission today heard testimony of witnesses in charges brought against the Colorado and Southern railway by the Breckenridge chamber of commerce, following the refusal of the road to accept freight over the Com and Breckenridge division following the resumption of traffic over the Denver-Leadsville line.

Breckenridge merchants it is claimed under former conditions could receive shipments from Denver over night, while now it is said it takes from five to 10 days over the Denver and Rio Grande to Leadsville and thence by narrow gauge to Breckenridge.

The railroad company in defense of its abandonment of freight on the Breckenridge-Como division declared that this branch of the road was operating at a loss of $80,000 a year. The hearing was adjourned until November 7, when it will be resumed at Denver.

Restraint Order at Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 5.—At the instance of Illinois central officers here this afternoon Judge Walter Evans of the United States district court granted a temporary restraining order forbidding interference with any of the business of the company by striking employees. The application for permanent injunction will be heard November 27.

Fifty strikers quartered here are said to have returned to Pittsburg where they were enlisted on contracts they said the railroad company had broken.

Others quartered here sleep and eat in tents. In the mess tent a moving picture apparatus is in operation. It is said the strikers demanded this form of entertainment.

JACKSON, Miss., Oct. 5.—Governor Noel tonight instructed that national guard troops at Aberdeen, Columbus, Calhoun and Newton, be sent to Water Valley to protect strikers at the shops of the Illinois Central railroad.

According to a dispatch from the mayor of Water Valley, imported men who desire to work are being intimidated.

Suggests Arbitration.

JACKSON, Miss., Oct. 5.—Arbitration as a means of settling the difficulties between the Illinois Central railroad and its shop and office employees is suggested in a telegram addressed tonight by Governor E. F. Noel of Mississippi to President Markham and Vice President Park of the railroad.

It is proposed that officials of the road and representatives of the strikers meet at the office of George Noel and arrange details. Up to a late hour no announcement was made as to a reply from the officials of the road. Governor Noel's suggestion of leaving negotiations made to him this afternoon by Mayor Orin of Jackson, who explained that he had reasons to believe

STRIKE VIOLENCE AT NEW ORLEANS

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 5.—One man was shot and probably wounded late tonight when a party of Illinois Central strikebreakers were fired upon while upon their way from company's headquarters to their quarters for the night. A United States deputy, who was escorting the men also was slightly injured.

Two Disturbances Earlier.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 5.—The first Harrison lines strike violence here occurred this afternoon when strikebreakers imported to work in the Algiers shops of the Southern Pacific railroad were attacked by a mob of 500.

The train on which the strikebreakers were brought here had just pulled into the Algiers yards when the trouble began. Several shots were fired from the coaches in which the men were riding but no one was struck by bullets. Several arrests were made on the train.

When the strikers attempted to take their prisoners out of the car, the mob surged forward and began striking the strikers with fists and clubs. The arrival of a reserve squad restored order, but not before half a dozen strikebreakers had been severely beaten.

Another outbreak occurred this afternoon near the quarters of the Illinois Central strikebreakers when the company attempted to transfer a coach load of men to the Stuyvesant street yards. The coach had gone only a few blocks when it was attacked by the crowd of strikers and sympathizers. Every window in the car was broken, but no one is believed to have been hurt. The attempt to transfer the men was abandoned and they were taken back to their quarters.

Greets "Old Folk" of Utah

The president spent the entire day in Salt Lake City. He promised to pay a brief visit to Ogden on his return from the Pacific coast, October 15.

At the Mormon tabernacle where he preached a sermon two years ago the president today greeted the "old folk" of Utah who were being given their semiannual entertainment. They came from all parts of the state, and ranged in age from 70 to more than 90. When Bishop Nibley called for those to rise who had crossed the plains before the advent of the railroad more than 1,000 of the gray-bearded men and wrinkled women, many of the latter still garbed in the fashions of 50 years ago, slowly stood up while the great audience in the tabernacle loudly cheered. The picture was an unusual and impressive one and President Taft joined enthusiastically in the applause.

Mr. Taft spoke to the "old folk," and the several thousand others who filled the big structure on the subject of peace treaties with Great Britain and France. This speech is being received everywhere with more enthusiasm than any of the others just discussed by the president.

The audience at the fair grounds today a large outdoor gathering listened attentively to his detailed discussion of the tariff bill he vetoed and applauded him as he closed. Mr. Taft invariably thanks his "tariff audiences" for their patience in listening to a dry, uninteresting and tedious subject.

GRAND JUNCTION "WETS" BRING UP LOCAL OPTION

GRAND JUNCTION, Oct. 5.—A petition calling for the submission of the local option question at the November election was filed with the city clerk today by the "wets." It contains 1,275 signatures, 300 more than required by law.

COLORADO PROGRESSIVES WILL MEET OCTOBER 14

GRAND JUNCTION, Oct. 5.—Merrill D. Vincent, chairman of the Colorado Progressive Republican league today issued a call for a meeting to be held here October 14.

W. H. GRAHAM IN CHARGE TEMPORARY PORT ENTRY

John F. Vivian, surveyor of customs at Denver has received official notice from Washington that the local office shall open a temporary port of entry at Colorado Springs for the accommodation of the International Dry Packing congress which meets here October 16-20. Inspector William H. Graham of the Denver port office will be in charge.

The purpose of this is to allow foreign firm products for exhibition. Most of them will come from Canada and Mexico. Most of the entries will be free.

OUT FOR HILLES FOR CHAIRMAN

MOVE TO HAVE HIM HEAD G. O. P. NATIONAL BODY

Utah Republicans Formally Launch Boom at Banquet to President Taft

SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 5.—The move to make Charles D. Hilles, secretary of the Utah Republican league, the national chairman of the G. O. P. was formally launched today at a banquet given by the Utah Republicans to President Taft.

The banquet was held at the Hotel Utah and was attended by a large number of the state's prominent Republicans. Mr. Hilles, who is a well-known figure in Utah politics, was elected to the position of national chairman of the G. O. P. at the annual convention held in St. Louis last year.

Mr. Hilles, in his acceptance speech, said that he was honored to be chosen and that he would do his best to represent the party. He also said that he would be glad to have the support of the Utah Republicans.

The banquet was a success and the move to have Mr. Hilles as chairman of the G. O. P. is well advanced.

Firmly Rebukes Price

SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 5.—President Taft today publicly but firmly rebuked the president of the Young Men's Republic in league of Utah, Fred W. Price, when the latter introduced him to an immense crowd at the state fair made a bitterly partisan speech. It was as the prospective Republican candidate for the presidency in 1912 that Mr. Price presented Mr. Taft and after predicting that he would be triumphantly elected and that November next year would find "the Democracy of Utah in its customary place deep down in the slough of despondency," he introduced the chief magistrate of the nation as "William Howard Taft of Ohio."

Mr. Price said the president was emphasizing each word significantly "as president of the United States."

There was a loud laugh from the crowd which was followed by a laugh when Mr. Taft humorously closed the incident by saying:

"My friend the president of the Young Men's Republic in league is probably a better Republican than he is a prophet."

The president then launched into a discussion of his tariff votes repeating the argument and explanations he has made at other points during the trip.

Tonight Mr. Taft attended a banquet of the Commercial club prior to leaving for Pocatello, Idaho, shortly before midnight. At the banquet he spoke briefly on the trust question and the relation of government to business, following the lines laid down in his Detroit and Waterloo speeches.

NINE BALLOONS MAKE START IN RACE

Some of Aeronauts Predict Record of 1,171.9 Miles Will Be Broken

GO NORTH AND NORTHWEST

Some of Aeronauts Predict Record of 1,171.9 Miles Will Be Broken

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 5.—Three unidentified balloons leaders as far as known in the James Gordon Bennett and Lahm cup races, passed Tarkio, 131 miles northeast of Kansas City, and but 15 miles from the Iowa state line at 8:30 o'clock tonight. They were traveling high and fast.

But three identified bags had been accounted for up to midnight. They were the Condor, flying the colors of France, which passed St. Joseph, Mo., at 8 o'clock, the Topeka II, that sailed over South St. Joseph, Mo., at 8:40 o'clock and the America II, which was reported at Savannah, Mo., 80 miles north of Kansas City at 7:45 o'clock.

Before a favorable 30 mile wind from the south and southeast, eight racing balloons sailed away from here today in contests from the James Gordon Bennett trophy and the Lahm cup.

Six of the air craft three representing the United States, two Germany and one France, are entered in the Bennett race, an annual international event. The three American balloons in this contest and two other American balloons are after the Lahm cup. A fourth balloon which acted as pilot in the international race is a tempting to break the altitude record.

Every balloonist got away to good start. The pilot balloon, Pennsylvania and the America II, trouble getting clear of the ground by dumping a little sand both soon able to gain a good altitude.

The Berlin II did not rise well until after it cleared the aviation field, and its drag rope took two or three spectators at the crowd's feet but no one was severely injured and the bag was not long in rising to an estimated height of 500 feet. With the exception of the last two bags to sail, the Kansas City II and the Topeka II, all of the balloons flew almost due north. The Kansas City and Topeka entrants were carried northwest. It was almost dark when the last two balloons started.

Predict Long Flights.

All the aeronauts were well pleased with the starting conditions. They predicted long flights and one or two were willing to venture that the record of 1,171.9 miles established by the America II last year would be broken.

An immense crowd saw the balloons start. All the seats on three sides of the aviation field were filled, approximately 25,000 persons being on the grounds. Besides these spectators thousands took in the start from hills, house tops and box cars surrounding the field.

The French balloon, the Condor, came in for the loudest applause of any of the foreign entries. It is a

SHOW LAST HONORS TO ADMIRAL SCHLEY

Thousand Men From Nation's Land and Naval Forces in Funeral Escort

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—Surrounded with all the pomp of military honors the body of Rear Admiral Winfield Scott Schley, who died suddenly on Monday in New York was buried this afternoon in Arlington National cemetery.

A thousand men from the rank and file of the nation's naval and land forces formed the escort to the crepe-draped caisson on which rested the body of the hero of Santiago bay. In the procession were more than 700 cadets from the naval academy, marines from Washington and Philadelphia, seamen and gunners from battleships, veterans of the Spanish-American war, and cavalry and artillery detachments from the post at Washington.

Rear Admiral Badger, commander of the second division of the Atlantic fleet, led the long procession, it marched from St. John's Church across Lafayette street to the White house to the grave. At the grave a final salute and tips were sounded over the grave of the dead admiral.

The funeral service was held at 11 o'clock. Long before the service at Admiral Schley had been held, the residence grounds filled the streets.

ATTORNEY BENSON NAMED TO PROSECUTE MRS. PATTERSON

DENVER, Oct. 5.—Horace G. Benson, former assistant district attorney, today was appointed special prosecutor at the trial of Mrs. Gertrude Gibson Patterson, charged with the murder of her husband Charles Patterson at Montclair, a suburb 10 days ago. District Attorney Willis A. Elliott asked to be relieved in the Patterson case, because the law firm of which he is a member acted for Mrs. Patterson in her divorce suit filed just before the shooting.

Filing of the information charging Mrs. Patterson with first degree murder will be delayed until Mr. Benson has an opportunity to go over the matter.

SUFFERS LOSS OF SPEECH ON ANNIVERSARY OF QUAKE

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—A strange case of recurring aphasia due to the shock of a quake passing through the San Francisco earthquake zone to light here today when Christian De Wain, a wealthy retired merchant of Berkeley, Cal., talked and fell into the arms of a passerby on the street. For more than half an hour, although perfectly conscious, speech utterly failed him.

When Mr. De Wain recovered he said that the first attack of this kind came in April, 1907, almost exactly a year after the earthquake.

Although he passed through scenes of horror at that time he suffered no ill effects until this time. The first attack lasted 10 minutes. On October 1, 1909, his birthday, he had a similar attack. The strange feature of his third period of forgetfulness today was that it followed the second by exactly two years.

Mr. De Wain, who is 63 years old, is making a pleasant trip alone. After his memory returned today he walked away apparently as well as ever.

PREDICTS END OF WORLD

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—The second coming of Christ and the end of the world are presaged by the war in which Turkey and Italy are engaged. This is the view held by the Seventh Day Adventists according to Rev. Kit Russell of Takoma Park, D. C., an exponent of that faith.

The Adventists have maintained for many years, said Mr. Russell, "that the refusal of the powers to help the Turk in his final expulsion from Europe and the refusal of his territory by the nations would be the signal for the second appearance of Christ. The basis for this belief is the prophecies in the Bible. In the Book of Daniel is found:

"And he shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between the seas and the glorious holy mount yet he shall come to his end and none shall help him."

"The personage referred to is conceded by commentators to be none other than the Turkish empire. And the text shows that this power shall come to its end and none shall help him. Then Christ shall come and deliver his people 'every one that shall be found written in the book.'"

Mr. Russell construed the planting of the tabernacle of the Turkish palace between the seas and the glorious mountains to mean that the Ottoman would transfer his capital to Jerusalem. He said the Adventists do not attempt to say just when these events would take place but consider the present imbroglio as a step toward their consummation.

ON TRIAL SECOND TIME FOR MURDER OF RELATIVE

DENVER, Oct. 5.—Joseph E. Bailey, alleged slayer of his brother-in-law, Eugene Smith, a Colorado & Southern locomotive engineer, was placed on trial for his second time in the west side court. This is the second time that Bailey has been called to the bar to answer for the supposed offense.

Smith was killed over a year ago. According to the district attorney's version of the affair Bailey took his life in a quarrel over the latter's sister. For some time it is said the Smiths had had domestic difficulties. Finally Smith's wife left him and went to her mother's house. There the dead man followed her in an attempt to affect a reconciliation. Bailey warned him away and when he refused to go, it is alleged, shot him. Smith died almost instantly.

Bailey was afterward placed on trial and found guilty of murder. The supreme court, however, granted him another hearing. His second trial will be continued this morning when the taking of testimony will probably begin. Yesterday was consumed in the selection of a jury.

BOSTON ACTRESS WEDS J. W. KAY OF DENVER

BOSTON, Oct. 5.—Miss Gertrude Binley, until recently connected with the Castle Square theater and formerly with the Boston theater stock companies, was married yesterday afternoon at the home of her mother, Mrs. Sallie Lee Binley, of Brookline, to J. Wilbur Kay of Denver.

Mr. Kay is a son of John W. Kay, a Detroit lawyer, is a graduate of the University of Michigan and is general manager of the Motor Power Irrigation company of Colorado.

The bride is a daughter of Miss Anna Binley of Jamaica Plain and the bridegroom was preceded by his brother, Wallace J. Kay, of Detroit. After November 1, Mr. and Mrs. Kay will be at home in Denver.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 5.—Suit has been filed by Public Administrator Troll to recover the personal effects of the late S. Louis (Tony) Von Phul held by the manager of the Yvonne apartment house as security for payment of a rent claim of $128. Troll was appointed administrator of the estate September 7. A number of claims have been presented to him by various creditors of Von Phul. He made a claim for the effects held by the apartment manager and the latter refused to turn them over. Troll's contention is that all Von Phul's assets should be collected, and that the rent bill should take its share with the rest.

W. E. CURTIS, WRITER, DIES

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 5.—William Elroy Curtis of Washington the traveler, journalist and writer of political topics died suddenly in his room in a hotel here tonight. Mr. Curtis arrived at noon today from New York accompanied by his wife. Tonight he was stricken with apoplexy and although medical assistance was immediately summoned it was impossible to save his life. He was 61 years old.

Mr. Curtis was born in Alton, O., in 1873, and was educated at Western Reserve college. He turned to journalism and was connected for several years with the Chicago Inter-Ocean and then with the Chicago Record-Herald, remaining as traveling correspondent with the latter publication until his death.

He was several times special commissioner of the United States to South and Central American republics, and for three years, from 1899 to 1903, served as a director of the bureau of American republics.

During the World's exposition at Chicago, he acted as chief of the Latin-American department, and in 1902 acted as special envoy to the queen regent of Spain and Pope Leo XIII, on behalf of the exposition authorities.

AUSTIN INQUEST TODAY

AUSTIN, Pa., Oct. 5.—Throughout today the crash of falling buildings resounded over the debris-strewn plain where Austin stood before it was swept by last Saturday's flood. At some points were buildings piled in almost impenetrable heaps, and men clambered to difficult points and made fast chains and cables at which horses tugged until a wall, the side of a house, or the whole dwelling fell to the ground. As fast as a building fell or was torn apart, the wreckage was drawn away in sledges or drays.

In a day's work of overhauling the wreckage here, due to the breaking of the dam last Saturday and the resultant flood, five additional bodies were accounted for today.

The dead record to date numbers 50 with about 25 more to be accounted for, according to the census by which the dead are checked off.

The work of clearing up is progressing rapidly.

Since the arrest of several looters and the finding of stolen property stored in houses near Costello it has been deemed wise to police that section. Hereafter state troops will patrol the road between here and Costello.

Interest centers tonight on the inquest which will be held tomorrow.

Vincent Astor, son of John Jacob Astor, who has decided to become a lawyer. According to news from Newport, young Vincent will enter Harvard and, after completing a three years' academic course, he will enter Harvard Law school.

Colonel Astor and his son have been considering during the last year the possibilities held out by the profession of forestry, which Colonel Astor wished his son to take up.

At first Vincent thought that he would become a physician, but recently the appeal of the law has been such that it was finally decided to make a lawyer out of him.

STATE FINISHES TESTIMONY IN LUMBER TRUST SUIT

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 5.—The state completed its testimony in the ouster suit against the alleged lumber trust today and the hearing adjourned to meet in Jefferson City, December 4. At the same time the defense attorneys will file a demurrer to the state's evidence. The last witness for the state was W. P. Dulaney of Slater, who was blacklisted more than 10 years ago by the Missouri and Kansas Lumber Dealers association because it was said he sold lumber outside the territory arbitrarily defined as his by the association.

STRIKE VIOLENCE

that the different crafts involved in the strike were willing to arbitrate.

More Troops to McComb.
MC COMB CITY, Miss., Oct. 5.—With the tightening of lines both military and union, the struggle here between the Illinois Central railroad and strikers settled down tonight to one of endurance.

Three hundred and fifty state troops, reinforced by a machine gun patrol, the property of the railroad, lines of sentries prevent an entrance to the shops. National guard companies have been ordered to go into camp here and two other companies of the Second regiment, Mississippi National guard, have been ordered to hold themselves in readiness to come here.

It was said tonight that more troops are coming to quell any trouble that might arise from wholesale arrests for alleged violations of a federal restraining order against strikers interfering with railroad business. Strikers are orderly, and since the outbreak on Tuesday, nothing has occurred to mar the peace. No resentment over the presence of the troops has been noted. Three additional National guard organizations probably will arrive by tomorrow.

No information concerning the arrival of strikebreakers is available.

Thirty Days, Say Strikers.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 5.—The strike will be over within 30 days. Trains are behind time, engines need repairs, and no competent men can be had to fill our places," was the statement issued by the strikers' publicity committee of the Harriman employees today.

Supt. H. T. Platt of the southern division of the system, said conditions were satisfactory, and that more men were working today than on any previous day since the strike began.

Offers Illinois Central Aid.

CHICAGO, Oct. 5.—The railroad shop employees' strike apparently settled down to an endurance contest today. Offers of assistance from the Pennsylvania and Northwestern railroads were said to have been made to the Illinois Central. The Pennsylvania offered to loan the Illinois Central 170 locomotives and a like number was offered by the Northwestern railroad. Fearing that attempts would be made to place chemicals in the water tanks of engines, putting them out of commission, the Illinois Central officials caused the removal of all ladders from water tanks along its right of way.

NINE BALLOONS

beautiful new bag and is conceded to have a good show in the contest.

For a time today it looked as if the Berlin would not sail owing to the failure of its pilot, Lieut. Leopold Vogt, to arrive. He had not reached here when the bag was into the bags, but so certain was his aide, J. O. Dunker, that the aeronaut would be here that his balloon was filled.

Other Flyers Equip Vogt.

Shortly after 1 o'clock Lieutenant Vogt arrived at the field in a taxicab, considerably perturbed, but ready to fly. The failure of his flying garments and his kit to clear the customs house in New York had delayed him. Other flyers came to his rescue and soon he was provided with an improvised equipment.

If an American balloon wins this race the Bennett trophy will become the property of the Aero club of America. The country that wins the trophy three successive times is entitled to keep it. Americans have won the last two races. Lieutenant Lahm, who is flying the "Buckeye" in this race, won the trophy the first year it was offered, in 1908.

The Lahm cup race is for Americans only and is a distance event, as is the Bennett race. The cup is now in the possession of Allan R. Hawley. If his record is not beaten in the next two years he becomes the owner of the cup.

The following are the regular prizes in the Bennett race. First, $1,500; second, $1,000; third, $500.

Announce Extra Prizes.

In addition the Kansas City Aero club today announced it would give the following prizes: First, $450; second, $225; third, $125.

No cash awards are offered in the Lahm race.

The Entrants in the International Contest are

France—Condor, Emile Dubonnet, pilot, Pierre Dupon, aide.

DEER HUNTERS EXCEED POPULATION OF COUNTY

DENVER, Oct. 6.—Reports to State Game and Fish Commissioner James A. Shinn show that hunters roaming the hills of Rio Blanco county outnumber the population of that county. The population, according to the last census is 2,332. More than 2,000 hunters are looking for deer in the White river and other hunting grounds of Rio Blanco county. The area of the county is 8,249 square miles.

TONY ROSS WINS

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—Hanging on the ropes helpless before the terrific punches of Tony Ross, the heavy-weight Morris Harris, lost to the Italian in the third round of a scheduled 10-round bout here tonight. Harris took a severe beating, but gamely fought on after being knocked down several times in the first, second and third rounds. Only his wildness prevented Ross from landing a knockout.

When the referee stopped the fight Ross had Harris hanging to the ropes holding him with one hand while trying to put the finishing punch over with the other.

BIG D. U. GAMES TO BE AT BROADWAY PARK

DENVER, Oct. 5.—Football followers will be well pleased by the announcement that the great schedule of six big football games to be played in Denver this fall by the University of Denver, including the Thanksgiving day game with Colorado college, will be played at Broadway baseball park. This decision was reached yesterday as the result of a conference between President James C. McCall of the Western league champions and the university authorities. The games which will assuredly be played at Broadway baseball park are those with Utah, Baker South Dakota and Colorado college. Those with the Mines and the Aggies will be played there if these teams consent.

The latest news of how eggs go in the stomach is: Two freshest soft-boiled, one and three-quarters hours two raws, two and one-quarter hours hard-boiled, three hours; ometer, three hours. The figures speak for themselves, but do not tell the whole truth, for it looks as if soft-boiled eggs are more easily digested than raws, whereas, raws are no bland and gentle as not to excite the flow of the gastric juices—not a single squirm of the stomach.

COMMITTEE FORMALLY SUGGESTS ANNUAL CARNIVAL; GIVES REPORT

The carnival executive committee has totaled its gross receipts and expenses for carnival week, and the report, submitted yesterday to E. W. Giddings, president of the Chamber of Commerce, shows a net surplus of $27,500.

It required $12,388.50 for the week's festivities, and of this amount $6,208 was raised by subscription. The expenses in excess of the income received from attractions were $6,180.50, leaving a net surplus of $27,500.

The carnival committee was appointed by the Chamber of Commerce, and its report has been certified by Horace H. Mitchell, public accountant. The great success of the carnival was such that those in charge of it, as well as hundreds of business men and citizens, have expressed a desire to make a summer carnival an annual event in Colorado Springs. It is pointed out that many visitors came to Colorado Springs last summer solely on account of the carnival, and it is proposed to take steps early next spring and arrange for a similar event in 1912.

Committee's Report.
The report, in full follows:
October 4, 1911.

Mr. E. W. Giddings,
President of the Colorado Springs Chamber of Commerce, Colorado.

Dear Sir: Your executive committee of the Colorado Springs Summer carnival begs to present its final report on the carnival held during the period from July 31 to August 6, inclusive.

We are satisfied that the holding of a carnival during 1911 not only attracted a large number of visitors who might not otherwise have visited our city, but in addition provided methods of amusement for our regular tourists.

A civic spirit was exhibited by citizens which, supported by sufficient cash subscriptions, gave the committee the courage and the means of war necessary to produce successful results.

We, therefore, recommend that the Colorado Springs Summer carnival be made an annual event and that early next year such steps be taken that will insure the holding of a 1912 carnival that will surpass the one of this year.

The subscriptions and disbursements were as follows:
Subscriptions received.....$6,208.00
Expenses in excess of income received from attractions.....6,180.50

Net surplus.....$27,500

We are pleased to submit the auditing report of Mr. Horace H. Mitchell, who so kindly assisted in the accounting work.

Accompanying I hand you statement of receipts and disbursements of your office for the recent carnival as evidenced by the records and vouchers submitted (or canceled checks in lieu of the few vouchers missing), together with a profit and loss account, all of which show an unexpected balance of $27,500, which agrees with the balance on deposit in Colorado Springs National bank.

The items amounting to $86.50 are subscriptions made in lieu of cash and have been deducted from contra amounts due by your committee to the subscribers.

Donations, other than cash, are not included in this statement, recognition of same having been left to your committee.

I take pleasure in testifying to the correctness of the accounts as kept by those in charge and the thoroughness in keeping the financial records, considering the very small accommodations provided.

Respectfully submitted,
"H. H. MITCHELL,"
Certified Public Accountant.

All vouchers, bills, accounting books of all kinds, together with samples of advertising matter used and clippings of notices received have been delivered to your secretary.

Respectfully submitted,

FUSION TICKET IN N. M.

Democrats Have 14 Candidates and Progressive Republicans Get Two—Work Together.

SANTA FE, N. M., Oct. 5.—The Progressive Republican state convention late tonight endorsed the fusion ticket nominated by the Democratic convention. Each convention organized its own central committee and will work for the election of the fusion ticket on which the Progressive Republicans were given two of the 16 candidates.

The chief difference in the platform is that the Progressive Republicans favor a protective tariff and the Democrats a tariff for revenue only.

The Democratic convention concluded its deliberations by endorsing Richard H. Hanna and George H. Van Stone, both Progressive Republicans, the former for supreme court justice and the latter for corporation commissioner. These candidates were chosen from lists submitted to the Democratic executive committee today.

The Democratic state convention this morning followed the nomination of W. C. MacDonald of Carrizozo which was made late night, with the selection of the following for places on the ticket:

Lieutenant governor, E. C. DeBaca, Las Vegas; secretary of state, Antonio J. Lucero, Las Vegas; state treasurer, O. N. Marron, Albuquerque; attorney general, W. H. McGill, La Lunde; state auditor, Francisco A. Manzanara, Fort Sumner; superintendent of public instruction, Alvan N. White, Justices of the supreme court, Sommers Barkhart, Albuquerque, W. A. Dunn, Roosevelt, for third place, Richard H. Hanna, (Progressive Republican), Santa Fe; endorsed corporation commissioners, Sol Owens, Clovis; Serafino Martinez, Colfax; for third place, George H. Van Stone, (Progressive Republican), Estancia, endorsed.

MacDonald is a cattleman, De Baca and Lucero are sheepmen. Marron is a banker. Manzanara is the son of a former delegate to congress, and White is a lawyer.

After a recess further nominations were made. J. I. Emmerson, Carlsbad, was selected for commissioner of public land and the congressional nominations were reached in the order of business. The principal contest was between ex-Delegate H. D. Gerguson of Albuquerque and W. R. McGill of La Lunde. There was considerable interest in the struggle between the aspirants, McGill charging, had faith when the ballots had been but half counted, the result, then showing that his opponent was far in the lead.

The final count showed that Ferguson was nominated, and the other congressional place on the ticket went to Paz Valverde of Clayton, without opposition.

MASSACHUSETTS DEMOCRATS OPEN THE STATE CAMPAIGN

BOSTON, Oct. 5.—With the close of the Democratic state convention, today, the state campaign begins, and for the next four and a half weeks it is expected a lively fight will be waged.

The Democratic platform praises Governor Foss' administration, urges the abolition of party enrollment in primaries, favors the submission of a woman's suffrage amendment to popular vote, endorses the initiative and referendum and direct election of United States senators, and declares that reciprocity with Canada still is possible.

That a class of about 150 candidates shall be initiated into Colorado Springs camp No. 7226, Modern Woodmen of America, early in December, was the determination reached by that organization at a meeting Wednesday night.

Everybody is working to make this the largest camp in the state and in the way to win the state banner. The Democratic initiation will be performed by several national officers who are expected in the city at that time.

METHODISTS DISCUSS DECREASE OF MEMBERS

Reports at Ecumenical Conference Show Falling Off During Last Decade Was Great.

TORONTO, Ont., Oct. 5.—The principal subject of discussion at today's conference was the decrease in church membership which has taken place during the last decade.

The western section, comprising the Methodist churches in the United States, Canada and Japan, reported during that period a loss in membership increase while the eastern section covering the churches in Great Britain, Ireland, France, South Africa, and the mission field showed an absolute loss in membership.

In the western section the increase in membership during the decade ending 1891 was 1,241,208, while in the last decade it was only 437,562, the latter increase being but 15 per cent as contrasted with the former of 33.

In Great Britain, according to the Rev. Simpson Johnson of London, secretary of the Westminster Methodist conference, the various Methodist bodies gained about 100,000 members during the last 10 years, but in the last half of the decade there was a notable decrease, attributable, he thought, to conditions outside the church, and weakening of forces to meet changed social conditions.

The Rev. Orata of the Japan Methodist church, who reported remarkable progress in his country since the merging of the three Methodist churches, said nothing was more perplexing to the ordinary Japanese mind than the fact that there are so many different Methodist churches. He believed that Christianity's strongest appeal eventually would be found in one church comprehensive enough to cover all religious needs.

Reporting on Australian Methodism, the Rev. W. Williams of Australia said that every tenth person in Australia is Methodist and that the present union is seeking amalgamation with the Presbyterian and Congregational churches in its zone of work.

approaching the chutes and surged against the lines of policemen.

The public services were conducted by the Rev. Dr. Roland Cotton Smith, rector of St. John's, assisted by Chaplain Bayard of the navy. From the house the casket was transferred to the caisson platform, the last carriage of the soldier or sailor accorded the honors of military burial. The blue and white of the Union Jack covered the coffin upon it rested the sword and hat of the dead naval officer, and behind it marched a kniver bearing the draped flag of the rear admiral, a blue field with two white stars.

Six seamen gunners from the Norfolk bore the body of Admiral Schley from the house and the church and marched at its side on the long journey to Arlington.

The pall-bearers included eight intimate friends of the dead fighter: Rear Admirals Nicholson, Cromwell, Green, Parker, McLean and Remey; Lieutenant General Nelson A. Miles and Justice Alexander B. Hagner of Washington.

Secretary of the Navy Meyer, Admiral George Dewey and members of the supreme court, of the diplomatic corps, of the executive branches of the government and of the congress thronged the church.

It was President Taft's request that Spanish war veterans in the government service be permitted to attend the funeral and a large company of them marched to Arlington.

after prefacing his remarks with his own language, he would say: "I don't want to win the nomination, but I don't want to buy it. Then he would supply whatever funds were needed," was the testimony of Edmonds.

Asks About Beer and Cigar Item.

In a report made by a previous legislative investigating committee which might be considered not unfriendly to Mr. Stephenson the statement is made that $30,000 was spent for beer and cigars. Do you know if that item is correct?" Senator George Sutherland asked.

"I do not," the witness replied. "I suppose the committee which estimated that the various items for beer and cigars aggregated $30,000 might have been considered not unfriendly to Mr. Stephenson."

Senator Stephenson's vote it previously had been shown was 52,000, some of the voters being in prohibition territory.

Much of the questioning of Edmonds was devoted to the original charges made by State Senator Blaine alleging Mr. Stephenson's election was due to corruption.

The charges as investigated by the Wisconsin legislature and presented to the United States senate were read over in detail to Edmonds. He admitted that many sums of money named in the charges had been paid but he denied the truth of the phrase "Used corruptly and in violation of the law" as included in each charge. He denied that the fund was used to purchase corruptly editorial support in various Wisconsin newspapers, or that money had been paid to anyone except for legitimate campaign purposes.

The charges also mentioned that approximately $250,000 had been spent in the nomination of Mr. Stephenson. Edmonds declared the amount spent was not in excess of $107,783, as made in the final report to the state.

Senator W. B. Heyburn made an announcement which was regarded as important. He said where charges of unlawful use of money officially had been made in connection with campaign expenses of which no detailed account was rendered the presumption was that the money was wrongfully used and the burden of proof was on the accused.

Local Pair Arrested at Bridgeport, Conn.

Alice Black, a Colorado Springs girl, was arrested at Bridgeport, Conn., yesterday, in company with Frank Mohler, a Pittsburg youth, at the request of Thiel detectives. They are charged with having passed worthless checks in New Orleans and other points amounting to about $1,700. Press dispatches allege that the young woman, also known as Miss Pullman, and Mohler were wanted in San Francisco on a similar charge.

Both parties are known to the local police, and there are two charges against them here. Instructions were sent last night that the prisoners be wanted here in the event that they are discharged following trial. Miss Black lived in Colorado Springs several years ago at 634 East Utah street. She is 21 years old and said that she met Mohler at a state fair somewhere in Colorado, a few months ago.

Acting Chief Springer said last night that the police had sent out information concerning the pair and also that he learned recently that Thiel detectives had been detailed on the case.

"We will have them brought back here for trial," he said, "unless they are held by the authorities in the east."

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Oct. 5.—Mohler is said to have a wife in New York. He claims Harry Kohler, a Pittsburg millionaire, is a brother, and says formerly he was a student at Princeton university and also attended the military academy at West Point.

At New Orleans he was not known in the check transactions, the young woman having passed them, but the authorities there have been informed that Mohler was one of the principals, and a warrant for his arrest is now on its way here. Mohler wrote a telegram to the man he claims as a brother at Pittsburg, this afternoon, but the police are holding it pending the arrival of the warrant. Eight or 10 cities, said to have been watching for the pair, have been notified of their arrest.

According to the police, the young woman claims she believed the checks were all right, having been told by Mohler that they were received from his mother, and that as a matter of privacy they were made out in another name, as he had previously been in some difficulty. The young woman, who says she is 19 years old, expresses relief at their arrest.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 5.—So far, efforts to identify Frank Mohler, arrested at Bridgeport, Conn., on a charge of passing worthless checks, have failed here tonight.

"Harry Mohler, a Pittsburg millionaire," claimed as a brother, is not known.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 5.—Alice Black, arrested in Bridgeport, Conn., today, was in New Orleans about three weeks ago. She was known here as "Miss Pullman." She was accompanied by a male companion, introduced as F. A. Christy, but who, the police say, went by various other names. As far as is known by the local police, Miss Black or Miss Pullman only secured $100 here by her operations.

TURKISH NAVY 86 SHIPS ON ACTIVE LIST

THE OPPOSING FORCES OF TURKEY AND ITALY NOW ENGAGED IN WAR.

The picture shows the relative strength of the standing armies of Italy and Turkey and the active list of the war vessels available for war duty. The standing army of Italy consists of 225,000 men with a reserve force of 800,000 men which gives it a total war strength of 1,025,000 soldiers. The navy consists of 175 fighting vessels. The standing army of Turkey numbers 375,000 with a reserve of 350,000 soldiers, giving the Turkish government a combined fighting army of 725,000 men. Her navy consists of 86 warships.

The warships are the Medizidra, of Turkey, and (above) the Regina Margherita of Italy.

CITY'S TAX REVENUE

WOULD BE $246,688
FROM 20-MILL LEVY

If Mayor Avery calls for a 20-mill tax levy in making up his next budget the city will receive $4,089.60 more than it did last year, if all taxes are paid. This increase, if the 20-mill levy applies, will be due to the fact that the valuation of city property this year is $12,334,430, or about $200,000 more than in 1916. The tax levy this year is 20 mills, and on the same basis of taxation the city will have a sum totaling $246,688.60 for the coming year's operating expenses. An 18-mill levy will return $222,019.74.

The mayor has not yet decided between a 20 and an 18-mill levy. Personally he favors the latter, and the city charter does not permit a higher levy than 20 mills. The various city departments are in good shape financially, with the exception of the fire department. This, it is pointed out, is not due to mismanagement, but to a wrong arrangement of funds.

MANY SPRINGS WOMEN WILL GO TO CALHAN

Women will be represented in the Colorado Springs delegation that is planning to make the trip to Calhan today to help observe Colorado Springs day at the county fair.

"I have received word from several," said A. W. Henderson, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, "that they are going to take in the fair. I am sure that others would go if they knew that plans had been made for them."

More than 100 business and professional men of the Pikes Peak region have planned to take the special train that leaves the Rock Island railroad station at 9 o'clock this morning. Following is the program for the day:

- 10:30 a. m.—Baseball game.
  - 12 m.—Dinner.
  - 1 p. m.—Address of welcome and response.
  - 1:30 p. m.—Novelty race.
  - 2 p. m.—All harness; 2 40 class, one mile race.
  - 2:15 p. m.—100-yard foot race for Colorado Springs men.
  - 2:30 p. m.—One-half mile dash.
  - 2:45 p. m.—50-yard foot race for Colorado Springs women.
  - 3 p. m.—Second heat in 2 40 class.
  - 3:15 p. m.—50-yard foot race for Colorado Springs girls under 14 years of age.
  - 3:30 p. m.—Half-mile race for lady riders.
  - 3:45 p. m.—One-half mile mule race.
  - 4 p. m.—200-yard pony race.
  - 7:30 p. m.—Fire ride in a balloon.
- It is requested that all persons desiring to take part in the excursion secure tickets today from Mr. Wulff, L. J. Newsome, J. G. Dern, Fred A. Sperry or at the office of the Chamber of Commerce.

MUST ATTEND SCHOOL

Harry Allward, triant officer, declared yesterday that the law requiring children between the ages of 8 and 14 years to attend school, will be enforced to the letter. As a forerunner to see that the provisions of the statute concerning compulsory education are obeyed, Allward yesterday filed a complaint in the county court against Mrs. Anna Hanchette, charging her with a violation of the law. It is alleged that Mrs. Hanchette's two children, Josephine and Hulda, have not attended school for the last month, although the mother has been notified to send them to school.

Young Mothers

No young woman, in the joy of coming motherhood, should neglect to prepare her system for the physical ordeal she is to undergo. The health of both she and her coming child depends largely upon the care she bestows upon herself during the waiting months. Mother's Friend prepares the expectant mother's system for the coming event, and its use makes her comfortable during all the term. It works with and for nature, and by gradually expanding all tissues, muscles and tendons, involved, and keeping the breasts in good condition, brings the woman to the crisis in splendid physical condition. The baby too is more apt to be perfect and strong where the mother has thus prepared herself for nature's supreme function. No better advice could be given a young expectant mother than that she use Mother's Friend; it is a medicine that has proven its value in thousands of cases. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for free book for expectant mothers which contains much valuable information, and many suggestions of a helpful nature. Mother's Friend

RAILWAY SIGNAL MEN TO BE ENTERTAINED ROYALLY

More than 700 delegates are expected in Colorado Springs next week at the annual meeting of the Railway Signal Association, beginning Tuesday morning and closing Saturday. Applications already have been made for more than 600 reservations at the Antlers hotel, where headquarters will be located and all the business sessions held.

Although several important business meetings will take place, the members have planned an almost continuous round of pleasure, from the time they first begin to arrive Sunday, until the close of the convention.

There will be a general luncheon at the Antlers for the delegates and ladies at 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, and those who can get away from the business session will take the trip through the Garden of the Gods at 2 o'clock. A smoker will be given in the dining hall of the Antlers at 9:30 o'clock Tuesday evening.

Automobile and carriage trips through North and South Cheyenne canyons and to Seven Falls have been planned for Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The sixth annual dinner of the association will be held at the hotel Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Almost the whole of Thursday will be given over to pleasure. The visitors will leave the Antlers at 8:45 in the morning for the trip to Crystal park. Two ball teams, selected from the delegates, will play at Stratton park at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. The annual ball will be held in the ball room of the Antlers at 9 o'clock Thursday evening.

A special train will take the delegates and friends over the Short Line to Cripple Creek Friday morning leaving at 9:30 o'clock and returning at 5:30 o'clock.

Saturday the delegates will be given a chance to amuse themselves in sight-seeing.

Three Lives Endangered When Frightened Horses Run Away on High Drive

Years of training as an amateur shot putter, weight thrower and swimmer, stood W. Gainer Thigpen, of Coronado Beach, Cal., in good need yesterday, when a team of horses, hitched to a carriage, in which he was taking some friends on a trip over the High Drive, started running away. Through sheer strength he swung the frightened animals into the bluff, after they had gone a few yards, and saved himself and friends from a drop of more than 500 feet over the cliff.

The runaway happened at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Also in the party were Robert Sweeney, of Pasadena, Cal., and Arthur Ruhe, 1321 North Nevada avenue, this city.

They left the Antlers hotel yesterday afternoon and took the trip over the High Drive. They were on their way back and had reached one of the highest points on the drive when the doubletree broke.

The carriage, given impetus by the decline, bumped the horses, frightening them and they started to run. The brake was of little help, but Mr. Thigpen, who was driving, threw it on with full force, and put his whole weight against the lines. They stood the strain, and Mr. Thigpen managed to turn their heads into the bluff.

A little luck entered into the game with death at the same time, for one of the horses, influenced by the weight behind the lines, stumbled and brought its mate to its knees. The wagon bumped against them and was checked before they could regain their feet.

Then Ruhe and Sweeney jumped from the carriage and got to the heads of the horses before they could start again.

Thigpen is one of the proprietors of the Great Southern hotel at Meridian, Miss., and manager of the Coronado hotel, at Coronado Beach.

OPEN UNTIL ABOUT NOV. 15

The Pikes Peak Cog road will remain open until the middle of November if the weather remains favorable, according to a statement made recently by the officials of the road. Up to this time there has been very little snow on the summit, what little that did fall melting almost as fast as it reached the ground. Wednesday night the temperature was higher on the Peak than it was in Manitou, the storm raging below the summit.

Will Go After Funds Soon for Gymnasium

The campaign for funds to build a gymnasium at Colorado college, will begin just as soon as school work gets to running smoothly, according to President Slocum.

A long list of prominent persons likely to subscribe to the $250,000 needed, so that Colorado college may have the benefit of a $50,000 contribution from the general education board, has been prepared. The $250,000 must be raised before January 1, 1918.

There is nothing else better to take. Get from Stomach and cleanse the stomach and intestines and, besides, one single dose will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all your food the same as a sound, healthy stomach would do it.

When Diapepsin works, your stomach rests—eats itself in order, cleans up—and then you feel like eating when you come to the table, and what you eat will do you good.

Absolute relief from all Stomach Misery is waiting for you as soon as you decide to take a little Diapepsin. Tell your druggist that you want Pape's Diapepsin, because you want to become thoroughly cured this time.

Remember, if your stomach feels out of order and uncomfortable now, you can surely get relief in five minutes.

Dr. Bacon, Who Will Talk Here, of Eminent Family

Dr. Benjamin Wisner Bacon who is to preach at the college vesper service next Sunday, is a son of the Rev. Leonard Woolsey Bacon who is one of the distinguished preachers of the country, and who was for a number of years at the First Congregational church of Baltimore, the predecessor of Dr. Slocum, who came from the pastorate of that church to the presidency of Colorado college. He is a grandson of Dr. Leonard Bacon, one of New England's most famous thinkers and preachers. Special arrangements are being made to accommodate the large audiences expected at Perkins hall to hear him preach.

Breaking Ground for Dry Farming Exposition Here

Ground was broken yesterday for the first of the buildings and tents that are to be erected for the Dry Farming exposition. It was not intended to begin the work until the end of the week, but the exhibits are beginning to come in so fast that it became necessary to have more storage room than the town now affords. Esch and Co., are doing the carpenter work. The Colorado tent, 80x40 is the first to be erected. These tents will line Nevada avenue for four blocks.

Virginia Delegates to Dry Congress Named

Coming from away down in the Old Dominion, this extract from the Fredericksburg, Va. Star is interesting, because it shows how the "world do move." However the government's corn contests, in which deep plowing has been resorted to and often as high as 200 bushels to the acre grown, have been in the south. The paper says:

Governor Mann has appointed delegates from Virginia to the sixth International Dry Farming congress, at Colorado Springs, Colo., October 16-20, among them being the following: Westmoreland Davis, Leesburg; C. D. Twyman, Tayman's Mill; Dr. George W. Butts, Chuckstock; Dr. U. Gray, Fort Royal.

The object and purposes of the Dry Farming congress were discussed at a recent meeting of the State Farmers institute, when accounts were given of experiments at Cur's Neck and other Virginia plantations in subsoil plowing to the depth of 15 to 18 inches, thus making crops draw their moisture from under the soil, and be impervious to drought.

COLDS VANISH! Quick, Sensible Method That Doesn't Upset the Stomach

Have you heard of the overnight cold cure that is putting colds in the head and chest out of business between sunset and daybreak?

Here it is. Cut it out and save it if you don't need it now. If you have a cold, cough, throat soreness or acute catarrh, be sure and try it tonight just before going to bed. Pour a scant teaspoonful of HYOMEL (pronounced it High-o-mel) into a bowl of boiling water, cover head and bowl with a towel and breathe for several minutes the vapor that arises, then go to sleep and awake with a clear head free from mucus.

HYOMEL is guaranteed for catarrh, colds, coughs, croup, asthma, sore throat and bronchitis or money back. Bottle of Hyomel 50 cents at druggists everywhere. The complete outfit which contains Inhaler, $1.00.

PRaises Exhibits At CHEYENNE COUNTY FAIR

Success attended the Cheyenne county fair and the exhibits were wonderful, in spite of the fact that that section of the country had less than four inches of rain last season according to W. J. McCune, who has just returned from Cheyenne. Wells McCune is chairman of the exposition committee of the International Dry Farming congress.

It is not decided whether Cheyenne county will place an exhibit at the Dry Farming congress according to Mr. McCune, although the horticultural display is collected and ready for shipment. There is talk of raising a fund through private subscription, for the purpose of exhibiting.

PRELIMINARY PAVING WORK BEGINS MONDAY

Unless cold weather sets in, concrete work preliminary to street paving in the business section of the city will be started next Monday morning. A. Smith who has the subcontract for curbs and gutters, expects to begin work on Cascade avenue in front of the Antlers hotel at that time.

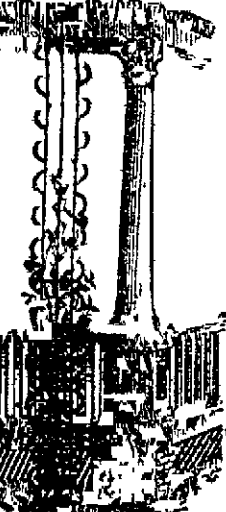

In addition to curbs and gutters in the paving district, Smith's contract calls for the laying of 2,000 feet of sewer tiling in the area to be paved with asphalt. According to the paving ordinance, sidewalks on Pikes Peak avenue will be 20 feet wide; Cascade avenue, 40 feet, and Tejon street 16 feet. Sidewalks on the remaining streets in the paving district will be 20 feet wide. In front of the Antlers hotel the extra sidewalk space will be added as at present.

Commissioner Lawton said yesterday that all the materials to be used in street paving will be tested at the Pearce laboratories in Portland, Ore.

RISSEY DIES SUDDENLY IN ARCADE CIGAR STORE

Lewis F. Rissey, a well-known resident of this city and employed at the Arcade cigar store, was suddenly stricken with hemorrhage at the store about 4.20 p. m., yesterday, dying an hour later. He was about 50 years old and had lived here for about 10 years. He is survived by a widow, Mrs. Mary A. Rissey, and an 18-year-old daughter, Beatrice.

J. C. McDowell, proprietor of the Arcade, was preparing to leave the store for supper, when Rissey walked around from behind the counter, dropped into a chair and holding his head in his hands said, "I feel awfully sick. I wish you would call a doctor." Dr. Guy Vinard was called, but Rissey died 30 minutes afterward. Bystanders called an express wagon belonging to D. L. Hoover, and the body of Mr. Rissey was taken to his home, 114 Lincoln avenue.

Mr. Rissey often complained of severe headaches and a heavy drumming in his ears.

He removed to this city in about 1901 and purchased the Victor bar. After about five years in this business he sold his interests to R. E. Chipman and went to New Mexico, where he purchased a ranch and lived for about a year. During this time his family was living in Colorado City, and he returned and entered the employ of J. C. McDowell at the Arcade cigar store.

No funeral arrangements have been made.

MAYOR HAS WHIP HAND IN POLICE CONTROVERSY

"Well, he has us tied up until the next regular meeting of the council," is the way one of the friends of Tawa yesterday expressed the standing of the controversy between the mayor and the council.

A number of the aldermen wanted to call a special meeting of the council tonight to discuss the dismissal of the chief, and to this end, six of the eight members, John Kelly, Julius E. Falk, W. L. England, D. F. Burson, George Lawrence and Z. J. Gervais, requested in writing that the mayor call such a meeting. They also threatened to call one themselves if the mayor did not act at once. However, upon searching the ordinances and the rules and order of business of the city, they failed to find any passage giving them authority to call a meeting without the mayor.

Yesterday, when asked whether he will call a meeting of the council, Mayor Hamble said, "I haven't done it yet. He also said he did not think the aldermen would try to call a meeting, since it could not be lawful, there being only one passage in the city ordinances in regard to special meetings, as follows:

"Rule 2—The mayor and any three aldermen may call a special meeting of the city council, but each member of the council shall be given 24 hours' notice thereof, and the purpose of such meeting and the business to be before it shall be stated in such notice."

Mayor Hamble called especial attention to the fact that the rule says the mayor and three aldermen may call a special meeting and said that since the members of the council cannot force him to call a meeting and do not have the power to do so alone, he thought the matter will have to be threshed out at the next regular session.

Only Suspended Taws.

In regard to the talk about his not having the power to dismiss Chief Tawa he said: "I did not 'fire' Mr. Taws, as seems to be the general opinion. I admit that I have not the power to 'fire' any officer, but I have the authority to suspend, and that is exactly what I did in this case. As for my reasons, they are known. Serious charges were brought against Mr. Taws, and others are rumored. Personally I like and admire the man. I must say that I have never seen or known a fellow with a bigger heart than he has. He is really too generous.

"As to the question whether I am right or wrong in this matter, I most certainly think I am right. Long before this little unpleasantness came up I asked the opinion of F. F. Schrieber, our city attorney, and several other prominent lawyers both here and in Colorado Springs. They all said that in their opinion I was in the right. Mr. Schrieber made a thorough study both of the city ordinances and the statutes of Colorado, and handed me his opinion in writing, the substance of which he summed up in these words: 'Should any officer be guilty of violation or neglect of his duty you would doubtless have the authority and power to suspend such officer and report your action together with the charges to the city council for its action.'"

Taws says that if matters do not adjust themselves soon he will apply to the courts for an injunction to keep the mayor from continuing the fight. At present he is reporting for duty every morning.

COLORADO CITY NEWS NOTES.

Leon Johnston has secured a position at the McIntosh drug store.

Jesse Landerman and Luther Mounning are visiting relatives in Tennessee. They will return in a month or six weeks.

The coal contract for the city schools was let to the Monument Valley Coal company at a recent meeting of the school board.

The Woman's Christian Temperance union of Colorado City will hold its annual election of officers this afternoon at the hall. It also will elect delegates to attend the state W. C. T.

U. convention, which will be held in Colorado Springs Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week.

Mrs. R. P. Daniels is in Denver representing the Colorado City Woman's club at the state federation meeting now in session.

Mrs. G. W. Hill left last night for Muskogee, Okla., where she will visit her son, Edward Rettiger, formerly chief of police of this city.

All members of the local G. A. R. post and their wives are invited as guests of honor to attend the illustrated lecture on "South Africa" in the Baptist church, this evening at 8 o'clock.

Bids for the installation of a modern low-pressure steam heating plant for the Baptist church building have been called for by the official board. It is probable that the excavation for the basement, which will be fitted up for Sunday school rooms, will be completed in the near future.

Miss Mary E. Reed of this city and John E. Lane of Dawson, N. M., were married Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Squire, 509 Monroe avenue. The Rev. G. Clifford Cress officiated. The young couple will leave tomorrow for Dawson, where they will make their home.

"My Appreciation of the Average Sunday School Teacher," was the theme chosen by the Rev. William J. Sly of Denver for his address at the Baptist church Wednesday night. During the evening examinations were held in the National Teacher Training course class, and four received certificates. They were the Rev. G. C. Cress, Miss Lulu Arterburn, Percy Griffin and Joseph Griffin.

CHILD'S HEAD SOLID MASS OF HUMOR

It Was Awful, Cried Continually, Had to Hold and Watch Him to Keep Him from Scratching. Suffering Was Dreadful.

Had not Used Half a Set of Cuticura Remedies Before Head Was Clear and Free from Eczema.

"I think the Cuticura Remedies are the best remedies for eczema I have ever heard of. My mother had a child who had a rash on his head when it was real young. Doctor called it baby rash. He gave us medicine, but it did no good. In a few days the head was a solid mass, a running sore. It was awful, the child cried continually. We had to hold him and watch him (to keep him) from scratching his head. His suffering was dreadful. At last we remembered Cuticura Remedies. We got a dollar bottle of Cuticura Resolvent, a box of Cuticura Ointment, and a bar of Cuticura Soap. We gave the Resolvent as directed, washed the head with the Cuticura Soap, and applied the Cuticura Ointment. We had not used half before the child's head was clear and free from eczema, and it has never come back again. His head was healthy and he had a beautiful head of hair. I think the Cuticura Ointment very good for the hair. It makes the hair grow and prevents falling hair." (Signed) Mrs. Francis Lund, Plain City, Utah, Sept. 19, 1910.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment are for sale throughout the world, but to those who have suffered much, lost hope and are without faith in any treatment, a liberal sample of each with 35-penny book let on the skin will be mailed free on application.  THIRD GAME—NEW YORK, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 17.
 FOURTH GAME—PHILADELPHIA, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 18.
 FIFTH GAME—NEW YORK, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 19.
 SIXTH GAME—PHILADELPHIA, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 20.

UMPIRES
 FOR NATIONAL LEAGUE—KLEM AND BRENNAN.
 FOR AMERICAN LEAGUE—CONNOLLY AND DINEEN.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—The toss of a coin in the presence of the National baseball commission started the making of final arrangements for the post-season games for the world's championship between New York winner of the national league championship, and Philadelphia present world's champions and holders of the American league pennant.

New York won the toss and accordingly it was determined that the first game shall be played here. The national commission, which has charge of the making of the series met here today to perfect arrangements, selected Saturday, October 14, for the first game and adopted a schedule.

The series will continue until one club has won four games. In case a seventh game is needed to decide the winner the commission will determine on which it shall be played.

Tied or postponed games will be played off on the grounds called for in the original schedule.

The important question of umpires was settled by the election of Klem and Brennan, representing the National league, and Connolly and Dineen representing the American league. Francis C. Richter and J. C. Taylor Spink were designated as official scorers.

The players eligible to participate in the world's series games by announcement of the commission today are:

Philadelphia—Baker, Barry, Bender, Collins, Coombs, Davis, Panfili, Werick, Hartzell, Krause, Lapp, Livingston, Lord, Martin, Morgan, McInnis, Murphy, Oldring, Plank, Strunk, Thomas.

New York—Devore, Becker, Murray, Snodgrass, Merkle, Devie, Flacher, Jevlin, Mathewson, Wiltse, Ames, Crandall, Marquard, Latham, McGraw, Wilson, Herzog, Drucke, Hartley, Paulett, Myers.

All games will begin at 2 p. m. and will be attended by members of the national commission and its secretary. The official ball of the National league will be used in games on National league grounds and the American league's official ball on American league grounds. Each of the competing clubs is required to deposit a certified check for $10,000 with the secretary of the commission not later than 11 o'clock on the day of the first scheduled game.

The commission issued a special warning to players that the rule regarding conduct on the ball field would be strictly enforced. It also served notice that under the commission's rules, the winner of the world's championship will not be permitted to participate in any exhibition game this year, the victorious team being required to disband immediately after the completion of the series.

The national commission announced the prices of admission to the games as follows:

At Philadelphia—Seats in boxes and lower grandstand, reserved, $3; upper grandstand, reserved, first 12 rows, $2; remainder, $1; general admission, $1.
 At New York—Boxes, $25; lower grandstand reserved, $2; upper grandstand, reserved, $3; general admission, $1.

The commission also issued a caution to the public against paying higher prices for admission than those fixed above.

Cliff Blankenship, formerly catcher of the Senators, who met with fine success with the Salt Lake club this season, has signed to pilot Helena of the Union association next year. Dick Foley has purchased the Salt Lake franchise and will manage the club.

Roger Bresnahan has picked up Joe Willis, cast-off of the Browns. He failed to make good last spring. Willis was one of the sensations of the Three-I league this season. Bresnahan secured him by draft.

CLOCK GOLF MATCH; CLUB CUP CONTEST

Another of the now popular ladies' clock matches will be played at the Colorado Springs Golf club tomorrow for a silver loving cup offered by Mrs. James F. Burns.

There will be two rounds to the match and the choice score will count. The winner will be decided in the following manner: Contestants will play twice around the course, 12 holes laid out in the form of a clock dial. For the various holes the player may take the best score in either the first and second round.

Those desiring to enter the contest which is for women members of the club, should send in their names by telephone to W. W. Campbell at the club.

Tomorrow also the qualifying round for the president's cup, donated to the club by W. K. Jewett, will be played. The men desiring to enter are requested to telephone their names to Campbell by 12 o'clock tomorrow last year, the first time the president's cup was played for, the trophy was won by H. B. Davis. The cup remains in possession of the club, the winner being entitled to have his name and his score engraved upon it.

FOOTBALL TOMORROW

Tomorrow will see the opening of the real championship football season in Colorado Springs when Coach Rothgeb's Tigers line up against the University of Wyoming eleven at Washburn field.

In preparation for the contest the squad has been working hard. Yesterday afternoon they were out early and pushed through a long practice. Their work was snappy and thorough, and they gave the small sprinkling of spectators an idea of what they may expect this year.

Tomorrow's game will be called at 3 o'clock. C. Henry Smith of Denver will referee the contest. Wagoner of Denver will act as umpire, Sheldon of Denver will be field judge, and Capen of Colorado Springs will be head linesman.

Manager Ernest Statton of the Tigers is completing arrangements for the game. The sale of tickets has been unusually large, and a big crowd is assured. The city ticket office of the Denver & Rio Grande railroad, the Powell Sporting Goods company and the college have been selected as places where tickets can be obtained.

Interest centers in the game from the fact that it will be a championship affair. Although Wyoming is not a member of the conference the Tigers have a chance to meet all the Colorado teams and so feature in setting the Rocky mountain championship.

A probable lineup for tomorrow's game will be:

Withers, center; Hedblom and Moberg, guards; Rovers and Floyd, tackles; Stanton and Thompson, ends; Putnam, quarter; Heald and Vandemoer, halves; Black, fullback.

Ryan, Champion Wrestler, Here

Tom Ryan, light heavyweight champion wrestler of the west, and instructor in wrestling, boxing and physical culture, reached Colorado Springs from Montgomery, Ala., yesterday.

Ryan plans to open a physical culture institution here along lines similar to those in vogue in various parts of the country. He formerly conducted the Montgomery Athletic club and has engaged in and won a number of wrestling bouts in the southern athletic belt. Ryan's home is in Chicago. He has defeated Mike Galvin, light-heavyweight of the east; Jack Martin, heavyweight champion of the middle west; Fred Ellis and others of like caliber. Ryan is popularly supposed to be an Irishman but he declared last night that Scotland was his place of birth.

The deer season closes today and hunters generally complain that the season has been one of the most disappointing in years. Duck hunters report better luck.

TERRORS IN POOR SHAPE FOR GAME WITH GOLDEN

By IRVIN BRUCE.
 (Student manager of the High School Football Team)

The Terrors will enter the game with the Miners at Golden Saturday in the most ragged condition that the team has been in since the season began. Coach Coffin has been doing his best to get something out of the men, but they seem to have the hook worm. The team has only worked out two nights this week. Monday night they were laid off on account of the class fight and they did not report for practice until Wednesday night.

The practice the team has had this week has been of little use, for the men seem to take it as a joke. When the fellows who are trying for the team realize that playing football is work and hard work at that, they will be better off. Different members of the team have been breaking training and are in poor physical condition. The next man that the coach detects breaking training rules is to be fired from the squad regardless of who he is.

The back field is the slowest that has represented the Terrors in many a day. They do not get away with the snap of the ball. When they hit the line they do not hit with any force. The man who carries the ball does not receive any interference from the other backs. Fowler is the only back playing any kind of a game, and is in a class by himself. To have a back field that will be a good scoring machine, the backs must use weight, speed and brains. The Terrors have these essential points but they do not use them together. Unless the backs put up a better article of football, the Terrors will stand little chance of winning from Longmont.

Among the strongest contenders for the championship in intercollegiate ranks besides the Terrors are Longmont, Eaton, Boulder Preps and Lamar. The Terrors and Longmont are the two best bets, with the odds slightly in favor of the Terrors.

Longmont has the lightest team that has ever represented the school, the average weight being only 140. What the team lacks in weight they make up in speed and gameness. The way the Longmont backs tear into the line is something awful. If there is not a hole for them they make one. They have one of the most aggressive line in the state. In Captain Archer, Bradley and Golden, Longmont has a trio of the fastest players in the state. The opposing lines find they are a tough set of backs to stop. In Dillingham, Longmont has one of the best men in the state when it comes to handling the forward pass. Being over six feet tall he towers above his teammates and is able to receive a pass that would be too high for the average high school player. Playing basket ball with M. C. N. G., has specially fitted him for the receiving of passes.

There are only about 80 boys in school at Longmont, yet there are over 40 of them out for the team. They do not come one week and then quit, but remain out all season and receive the benefits of the coach's training. When the next season rolls around they can pick a team of players who have had football training. Nearly every man on the Longmont squad has had some basketball training which fits him for handling the forward pass. With Clair Coffin at the helm they will be the hardest team in the state to defeat in spite of their weight.

Eaton has the largest high school team in the state, the average weight being over 175. The team is not only big but fast. With Coach Hockley at the head they are a team that will have to be reckoned with.

The Preps have the best prospects for a winning team that they have had in the time of the Glaze boys. They are a heavy line and a lightning fast back field. In the line they have three old stars in Juan McFarland, Wilson and Scoggin. With these three men in the game they will have a line that will be feared by the backs of opposing teams. The Preps have the advantage of backing the variety and thereby receiving the benefits of "Wilson's coaching."

With the exception of Eaton, Lamar has the largest team in the state. Coach Day loses only three of last year's team. To say that Lamar will win the championship of the extreme division of the league in the south is putting it mildly. It is probable the Terrors will play Lamar here on November 4. The only thing that stands in the way of the game is that Lamar must pay the Terrors $90 for the expenses of the game at Lamar last year. This controversy is up to a board of arbitration that consists of Longmont and the Preps. The two schools are to abide their decision.

The probable line-up for the game tomorrow with the Miners is as follows:

Transylvania Takes Feature Trotting Event at Lexington

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 5.—The Transylvania, the $5,200 feature of the third day of the fall trots, was won in straight heats by Thomas W. Murphy's Charlie Mitchell, a Marvellous Irish Liz gelding.

Miss DeForest broke the season's record for 3-year-old fillies in the first heat, when she went the mile in 2:08 1/2, within half a second of the world's record.

Minor Heir, M. W. Savage's great pacer, started to beat 1:58 1/2, his own record. He finished in 2 minutes flat.

Summaries.
 The 2:11 pace, $1,000, 3 in 5, four heats Wednesday—Heir-at-Law, first, won third, fourth and fifth heats and race. Best time, 2:07 1/2. Bertha A. second, 2:07 1/2. The Liar, third. Judea Ward won first and second heats. Best time, 2:07 1/2.

The 2:14 trot, $1,000, 3 in 5, three heats Wednesday—Alcotts Worthing won first, third and fifth heats and race. Best time, 2:08 1/2. Robert K. won second and fourth heats. Best time, 2:10 1/2. Denmore, third.

Transylvanian, $5,200, 2 trotters, 3 in 5—Charlie Mitchell, by Marvellous, won in straight heats. Best time, 2:08 1/2. Chatty Direct, second, Dorthy Hansboro, third. Stroller, King Brook, Gordon Todd and Maude Light started.

The 2:11 trot, $1,000, 3 in 5—Folly won third fourth and fifth heats and race. Best time, 2:08 1/2. Eva Tanguay won first and second heats. Best time, 2:09 1/2. Wilmer, third.

Kentucky Futurity, 3-year-old, pacing division, $2,000, 3 in 5, unfinished—King Daphne won second and third heats. Best time, 2:10. Miss DeForest won first heat. Time, 2:08 1/2. Braden Direct, third. Minor Heir, against 1:58 1/2. Time by quarters, 29 1/2, 1:00, 1:30, 2:00.

PACKEY WANTS $6,000 TO MEET MATT WELLS

CHICAGO, Oct. 5.—Billy Gibson of New York today entered a bid for the McFarland-Wells fight which was scheduled for October 19, at Madison Square Garden, but which was canceled when the club promoting the fight lost its license.

Bill Thirry McFarland's manager, said he would request a guarantee of $6,000 with a privilege of 40 per cent of the gate receipts.

THE RANGER COURSE AT THE COLLEGE

ALL who have at heart the protection of our mountain forests will welcome the announcement that the Colorado School of Forestry of Colorado College is to continue its Ranger course. This course was last given in January, February and March, 1910. It will be remembered that sixty rangers from the National Forests were detailed to attend, and that the decision of Attorney General Wickersham that these men could not receive pay during the course made it necessary to shorten and to hamper seriously the instruction planned. Yet none of the men quit outright and Director Coolidge of the School states that there have been requests from scores of National Forest officers and others interested in the work, that the course be given again. The course in 1910 was given jointly by the Forest Service and the School. Fortunately the Forest Service is to assist liberally in the course during the coming winter with lectures in silviculture, forest planting and other phases of forestry work, but the instruction is to be given chiefly by the faculty of the School of Forestry. The Faculty has decided that the demand for such a course warrants its reestablishment as a regular part of the instruction offered.

There can be little question but that the School can render as great a service in its Ranger course as in any branch of its work. The duties imposed on the rangers on the National Forests are becoming more and more technical and the time is not far distant when all rangers employed on the National Forests will be expected to secure such training.

The practical nature of the course offered by the School is made evident by the program announced seven weeks of the ten being devoted to instruction in the School's forest at Manitou Park. The faculty of the School has no greater opportunity than that of instilling the Rangers on the National Forests with a comprehension of a sound, liberal policy of forest conservation.

WAGES IN GREAT BRITAIN

THE English Board of Trade corresponds to the United States Bureau of Labor. It collects and publishes data concerning prices, wages, hours of labor, and other matters of interest to wage earners.

During the past five years the Board of Trade has been conducting an investigation to ascertain comparative "wages and hours of labor, rents and housing conditions, retail prices of food and the expenditure of working-class families on food." Reports have been published for the United Kingdom, Germany, France, Belgium and, most recently, for the United States. The report on the Cost of Living in American Towns treats of the wage, and hours of labor in the building, engineering, and printing trades, retail prices, rents and expenditures for food in the Eastern part of the United States as compared with similar data collected in the United Kingdom. The report does not deal with the reasons for the differences; it simply presents the facts.

The comparison of weekly wages of the building, engineering, and printing trades of England and Wales and in the United States shows that the wage level in this country is two and a third times the wage level in the former country. Taking the difference of the working day into account it is found that hourly earnings in the building trades are in the ratio 273 to 100, in the printing trades the ratio is 258 to 100; while in the engineering trades it falls to 198 to 100.

The American earns more but he must pay more to live. To secure equal housing accommodations the American must pay $2.70 for every dollar paid by the British workman. To secure food similar in kind and quantity to that used by the British family the American must spend $1.40 for every dollar spent by the Briton. However, the American lives better and actually spends much more for food than is indicated by the ratio 140 to 100.

The conclusion is reached that "the dietary of the average American family is more varied and more liberal than that of the families that as nearly as possible correspond with them in the United Kingdom." Higher prices are paid in the United States for clothing. However, a noteworthy fact is the practice common in the United States of buying clothes that are expected to last for a single season and not for two or more seasons as is common in the United Kingdom.

Taking the differences in money wages and prices both into consideration the relative real wages are obtained. Real wages are about one-half more in the United States than in the United Kingdom. In other words, the American workman's earnings enable him to buy 50 per cent more of the necessities and luxuries of life than the Briton can buy.

The fact that the American workman receives higher wages has been completely and accurately demonstrated. The reason for the difference is more elusive; it is more difficult, perhaps impossible, of ascertainment.

EFFICIENCY

A POPULAR magazine recently printed a series of articles contrasting American business methods with those of our European rivals. The most instructive lesson revealed was the comparative inefficiency of Americans due to carelessness, inaccuracy and slipshod indifference. Some of the business methods of the Germans and the English may evoke an amused smile, but in the long run they win because they are more efficient. The business man who instructs his typist to copy a document according to certain directions has a right to be wrathful if the work is not done correctly. And the housekeeper who orders from her grocer a pound of bacon sliced very thin has a just complaint if it is delivered in slices a quarter inch thick. But these illustrations are typical of the everyday results of inattention and indifference.

Our European cousins say that these faults are peculiarly American. In our desire to do things quickly and in a big way we often fail to do them well, which suggests that reliability is a more valuable quality than brilliancy.

PLATITUDES

From Collier's.
The slag pile of the Argo smelter, in Colorado, was recently sold for $30,000. Improved processes in reducing have made valuable what was regarded as waste. The slag pile contains gold, silver, and copper. The average American has no slag pile, but hasn't he its equivalent? One hears much talk of the increased cost of living, but those who complain of it must realize that our habits are part of the cause. The saying that a French housewife can nourish her family on what an American cook throws into the garbage can is old enough, but worth a thought occasionally.

THE SIGN NOISANCE MUST GO

From Leslie's.
Armed with axes to destroy and paint to obliterate, the members of the Automobile Club of America rode forth September 2, in their crusade against public highway signs in the state of New York. On that day went into effect the new law which gives to anyone the right to destroy signs upon public highways. In the neighborhood of New York city there was much activity, and, while all parts of the state have not been heard from, officials of the Automobile Club of America have no doubt that local clubs throughout the state are taking up the cause and pressing it vigorously. Motorists generally can be relied upon to aid in destroying these advertising signs, since they frequently cover or obscure the directions on the signposts upon which tourists so much rely. Secretary Charles E. Fosdick believes that most of the firms that have illegal advertising signs posted will themselves assist in removing them, on the theory that illegal advertising would not be profitable, even should it be allowed to remain. The same argument will soon apply to all billboards which disfigure city streets, country highways and the routes of railroads. If the public is educated to appreciate how billboard advertising blots the landscape and disfigures nature, advertisers will see the folly of such unpopular methods, however conspicuous they may be.

CANON CITY "LOOKING UP"

From the Canon City Record.
Things are "looking up" in Canon City. For several years past business has not been so good nor the future quite so bright as right now. For two or three years conditions have been rather gloom in every town in Colorado, and Canon City, like every other town in Colorado, has felt the general depression of the nation. Real estate sales have not been numerous because the people who would like to buy homes or farms in the middle and western states. The stagnation in the real estate market is nation-wide and the effect has been felt in Colorado.
But things are "looking up" in Canon City. The schools that have recently opened report a larger enrollment than ever before.
The postoffice reports the receipts of last year the greatest in the history of the city.
Real estate men report fewer vacant residences than for many years.
A casual observer can note the remarkable filling up of business houses on Main street.
Pastors of churches report many additions to their congregations from new-comers to the town.
Traders report the fact that they have moved in about six times as many sets of household goods as they have moved out.
The Daily Record notes that hardly a day passes that the paper is not ordered sent to one or more new arrivals in the city, without solicitation.
The banks report the opening of many accounts by new residents.
The leading grocery stores report a business largely in excess of that of the past season, or of any previous summer.
The hotels and rooming houses have all been full all season.
The garages estimate that at least 1,500 out-of-town automobiles have been here this summer to take the Sky Line and Top of the Gorge trips.
Mr. Maddox, secretary of the Business Men's association, reports many inquiries about the town and the prospect of many new-comers during the winter.

Business men are feeling good and the prospects are most bright for the future in Canon City.
Never was there a better time for a real estate investment in this city or in the valley near about.

The winter soon will make a trip this way, in maulin frenzy, and then we all will have the grip, sore throats and influenza. The blizzard will come blizzarding forth, with rude and shocking manners, and all the storm kings of the north will shake their icy banners. And then, FORWARD alas, poor weary soul, you'll suffer dire emotions, when buying clothes and emotions, when buying drugs and potions. Me thinks I see you, in the street, on icy pavements totter, and long to bask in summer's heat, and ply your patent water! I hear you mutter: "Can't it be that I was sadly sighing, when summer breezes beaked the sea, and happy men were frying? And did I, 'neath the golden skies, unweaved by stove and heaters, heap maledictions on the flies and damn the meek mosquitoes? Oh, whistling whisks!" say you then, "King Winter is a hummer! My heart will not know joy again until it's cooked next summer!"

"Swim smoothly in the stream of thy nature and live but one man."

Does it not sometimes astonish you, to find how often bright people say or clever books express, some quaint little thought of your own that you never dared own up to?

I was walking home the other day from a gathering, in which one girl had kept us all amused and interested by the quaint and funny things she had said, and the original schemes she had suggested.

My companion was a quiet girl, very conventional and not at all original or interesting.

We were speaking of the afternoon's fun. "Do you know," she started me by breaking out, "Do you know, lots of these funny things that June said, I've thought of myself, but I never exactly dared to say them. And one thing she suggested, I've been on the point of suggesting myself a dozen times, but it seemed so kind of queer that I never did, and everybody was delighted with it when she did."

I wonder if more of the difference than we realize between interesting, original talks and commonplace, uninteresting people isn't that the former express themselves freely, and the latter don't.

The natural explanation is that the commonplace folks have nothing to express, but I wonder if it may not be difference rather than emptiness, that makes them what they are.

Of course, there must be much difference in mind between the genius and the commonplace person, but I doubt if it is as great as we think it.

Popular people, bright people, center-of-the-stage people, are those who say and do the unexpected and interesting things they happen to think of.

And the great folks of the world, the leaders, have been those who expressed themselves instead of trying to do just what everyone else did.

Let yourself out.

Do the unexpected and original things you think of.

Speak out the quaint little ideas that come to you, just as they come to the bright people you admire so much.

Be yourself, and cease foolishly trying to reshape the individual pattern in which God cut you, to the conventional pattern of commonplace.

If you do I'm sure other people will find you more interesting and I really think you'll find yourself so.

Little Bobbie's Pa
By WILLIAM F. KIRK

Ma & I went up to the Central Park Zoo yesterday with sum friends of ours, Mister & Missus Brooks & there little boy.

I didn't want to go at first, because I have been in the Zoo a grand many times, but Ma told me that I was to go to meet the little Brooks boy, his name is Irving Brooks Junior.

He is just about yore size, Bobbie, sed Pa, & I think he can beat you in a fair fight. So if you cum along we will let you see how anywhere you say & have it out, sed Pa. Then of course, I had to go.

Pa & Ma & Mister & Missus Brooks rode in two seats in the omnibus & left us in the back seat two-gether, me & Irving Brooks Junior. I cud see the way that he was trying for to pick a fight with me, because the first thing he sed was I sent my Ma buttful? She is even moar buttful than yures.

I doant agree with you, sed me to Irving Brooks Junior, my Ma is the moast buttful lady that ever eam out of Wisconsin. I will admit, I toald him, that yure mother is a vany sweet-faced lady, but I doant like blondes. You doant, doant you, sed the Brooks kid, well, then, I doant like brunettes, & what do you know about that?

My Ma is a brunette, I toald him, & if you dare say that you doant like her I will hop one off yure nose.

Heer, heer, boys, sed Pa & Mister Brooks, wait till we git to the Zoo. We will find a nice quiet place for the two of you to fight it out. So we wait, but all the time I was figgering out my line of attack. There was never a good fiter, Pa toald me one, that didant suit my hatel shed.

We got up to the Zoo we beean looking at the monkeys & the other wild beests, & every time I sed that a monkey was handsome that Brooks kid sed that it was homely & every time that I sed one was homely he wud say Why, that monkey is as handsome as my father. Everything I ever sed to him, he wud always say to me, I fear you are wrong. He even toald me that Caruso was never in Central Park & then I lost my temper. I hit Irving Brooks Junior on his beezee & made it bleed. Pa toald me I shud always call a noase a beezee. It is moar refined, Pa sed.

Then the thing had went too far for to stop, so we had to have our fite & Pa & Ma & Mister Brooks rook us around behind the Zoo & we went to it good & hard. Mister Brooks was telling his son how to hit me & he got so excited that he toald his son wrong, because every time that Junior kid started to hit me I hit him first.

Go to him, kid, sed Pa, his father onst double crossed me in a font race. Git him. Spak him. Jest then Ma & Missus Brooks eam around the corner of the Zoo, & they both sed How brutal Why is it brutal? sed Pa, wen they cudnt hit eech other hard enuff to raise a blister. It is jest good exersise, Pa sed. They will be going at it for fifteen minnits or so, & then it will all be over & they will be jest as good friends.

How many minnits did you say? asked Irving Brooks Junior.

Fifteen minnits sed Pa.

No, sed Irving Brooks Junior, & not even fifteen seconds. Then he ran away as fast as bling.

There he goes, sed Pa, that is the way his father ran the time he dubbel-crossed me in that footrace.

It must be tuff to be a actor's son & git licked beesides.

Disease and Its Cure

By EDDY WOLFF.

HAY FEVER

Hay fever is a nervous affection that occurs annually about the same time. Its causes are various, and the cure depends entirely upon the special exciting cause.

The approach of the attack is generally characterized by a profuse flow of secretion from the nose, watering of the eyes, sneezing, insomnia, increased perspiration, a feeling of general discomfort and in many cases, asthma.

The eyes flinch from strong light, there is a daily headache and noticeably lessened appetite.

It makes the first appearance in June, though such early cases are more or less rare. It runs its course in such cases in about two weeks, and is never very severe.

Other cases announce themselves in July, and toward the end of the month the number increases until about the 15th of August all the hay fever patients in the land are suffering together, and extending condolences to one another.

These cases continue, with little or no variation in their gravity until some time in October, or the approach of the first frost. Then they disappear as if by magic, and do not return again until the following year. But the return may be expected at very nearly the same time, and in some cases on practically the same day.

While there are known to be at least 15 different causes of hay fever, it generally makes its appearance in people of the neurotic type—that is, people inclined to be rather nervous.

And as a sort of consolation, by far the greater number of people afflicted are persons of high intellectual development. It appears that hay fever may be Nature's penalty for knowing too much.

The first and most natural cause of hay fever is a general nervous condition of the entire nervous system. The term "nervous" as used here does not mean that irritable condition common to those who are over-worked or over-worried. It means rather those who have an abundance of nervous energy, and who are continuously "on the jump" and who cannot concentrate or sit still in one place for very long.

A second cause is some deformity of the structure within the nose. This deformity, however slight, may give the nasal lining an excessive sensitiveness to the minutest particles of flying dust.

The third cause is the pollen from certain plants. The kind of plant that causes the distress may vary widely in different individuals, so that the pollen which affects one may have no disposition to harass another in any way.

In all persons afflicted with hay fever fine dust will cause excessive sneezing throughout the whole year. The nose is sensitive to irritating influences that do not disturb other people.

Sea trips help some cases. Others have to seek an elevation of 1,000 feet or more above the sea. Others need only a change of climate, so as to enable them to escape the particular flying irritation that sets up in them such distressing symptoms.

Whatever the cause, once its escape is learned, the avoidance of the trouble should be simple. But this is not always so. Occasionally, the very atmosphere that helped one year will only aggravate the case the following season.

However, when a climate has been found where relief can be obtained, no thought of returning home should be encouraged until the first frost has covered the ground. Then one may venture home in security.

Only temporary respite is granted. Though the next year demands another migration for relief.

"HE WHO HATH LOVED"

He who hath loved has borne a woe's chain.

And worn the royal purple of a king.

Hath shrunk beneath the icy winter's sting.

Then revelled in the golden summer's reign.

He hath within the dust and ashes lain.

Then soared o'er mountains on an eagle's wing.

A hut hath slept in, worn with age and strife.

And hath been lord of castle towers in Spain.

He who hath loved hath starved in beggar's cell.

Then in Aladdin's jeweled chariot driven.

He hath with passion roamed a demon fell.

And had an angel's raiment to him given.

His battles sooth hath burned with flames of hell.

And winged through ever-blooming fields of heaven.

SACRED ASSOCIATIONS

From Human Life.
"It ain't everybody I'd put to sleep in this room," said old Mr. Jinks to the fastidious and extremely nervous young minister who was spending his first night in B at her house.

"This here room is full of sacred associations to me," she went on. "My first husband died in that bed with his head on them very pillows, and poor Mr. Jinks died stittin' right in that very chair there in the corner. Sometimes when I come into the room in the dark I think I see him stittin' there still. My own father died stittin' right on that lounge under the window. Poor pa! He was a spiritualist, and he alius sed he'd appear in this room again after he died, and sometimes I'm foolish enough to look for him. If you should see anything of him tonight, you'd better not tell me, or I'd be a sign there was something in spiritualism, and I hate to think that. My son by my first man fell dead of heart disease right where you stand. He was a doctor, and there's two whole skeletons in that closet that belonged to him, and half-a-dozen skulls in that lower drawer. Well, good night, and pleasant dreams."

NO. 5 WHITE'S CLUB

One of the most noted clubs in England is White's, which stands on St. James street and is several centuries old. About it is centered much of the club history of London. It was established in 1698 and is chiefly noted for the fact that Louis Napoleon was blackballed upon his desire to enter White's.

It was notably celebrated for the bets and betting duels of the last century, when it had the reputation of "the most fashionable hell in London." Walpole tells, in illustration of the overwhelming mania for gambling there, that when a man fell into a fit outside of the door, bets were taken as to whether he was dead; and when a surgeon wished to save his life by bleeding him, the bettors furiously interposed that they would have no foul play of that kind, and that he was to let the man alone.

White's claims the honor of being the oldest among London clubs. It was first established as a chocolate house. From an early period gambling was a favorite sport and Swift recorded that the Earl of Oxford never passed the building in St. James Street without bestowing a curse upon it as the ban of half the English nobility.

From a study of the club records, which extend back to 1736, it is possible to trace its evolution to the close corporation it has become. Rules of more and more stringent nature were gradually adopted, but at the same time its reputation for gambling was on the increase. There was hardly any probability upon which the members did not stake large sums of money. The marriage of a young lady of rank led to a bet of one hundred guineas that she would give birth to a child before a certain Countess who had been married several months earlier, and another wager was laid that a member of infamous character would be the first Baronet hung.

Well might young write in one of his epistles to Pope:

"Clodio dress'd, danc'd, drank, visited (the whole) And great concern of -an immortal soul!"

Of late I said, 'Awake' exist' and strive For nothin' to think to loiter in to live."

As for I overheard the demon say: Who daily met the loiterer in his way, 'Till met thee, youth, at White's," the youth replied.

"Till met thee there," and falls his sacrifice: His fortune squandered, leaves his virtue bare To every bribe, and blind to every snare."

Another witness to the prevalent spirit of White's at this time is supplied by Lord Lyttleton in a private letter, wherein he wrote that he had fears should his son become a member of that club the rattling of a dice box would shake down all the fine oaks of his estate.

From Selwyn's "Letters" is gleaned an excellent idea of the incidental history of the club. Through these is caught a glimpse of Charles James Fox at all stages of his strange career. We see him, for example, loitering at the club drinking hard till 3 o'clock in the morning, and later the brilliant statesman flits about the club "as much the minister in all his deportment, as if he had been in office forty years."

Selwyn thus describes a gambling party at White's: "I went last night to White's and stayed there until 2. The pharo party was amusing. Five such beggars could not have met: four lean crows feeding on a dead horse. Poor Parsons held the bank. The punters were Lord Carmarthen, Lord Essex, and one of the Fox family, and Donbigh sat at the table with what hopes I know not, for he did not punt. Essex's supply is from his son, which is more than he deserves, but Malden, I suppose, gives him a little of his milk, like the Roman lady to her father."

TOMORROW—THE ATHENAEUM CLUB.

ORIGIN OF "BOOSTER"

From the Strand.
Everyone knows what a boom is, as applied to a town. Charles Dickens described it 70 years ago in the "city" of Eden, although the actual word had not then been coined. But for a long time indeed, until lately—things were managed very unscientifically. The art of booming was a most one-sided affair, chiefly worked by the real estate owners or agents. "Cliffes" so made—arising in a single night—showed a lamentable tendency to "rust up" or "move on." There was an absence of local pride, which is such a conspicuous feature of the new order of things—the order of the "boosters."

"Boost" is a common American term meaning to "push upward." In 1893 the first boosters' club was formed at Spokane, Washington, for the purpose of boosting Spokane into the place which through its natural resources and attractions it deserved. The club, which comprised practically the whole population of the town, drew up rules in which every soul pledged himself to regard Spokane for conversational and advertising purposes "as the center of these United States and God Almighty's creation, and never to let a day pass without having done something in word or deed to boost this town."

Booster clubs began to spring up all over the west. They spread to the east, to the north, and to the south, and now the prevailing sentiment has grown so local as to find expression in the phrase, "Cuss America: give me Oshkosh." Americans who formerly went about with the American flag in their hats and the American eagle in their buttonholes have now substituted photographic views of their own towns or local emblems in default of regularly-granted municipal coats-of-arms.

The use of electricity is rapidly increasing in Switzerland owing to the development of numerous water powers. Electric light is driving out the candle, although 2,000,000 pounds of candles are still made in the candle factories of that country annually.

At The Theater

HENRY MILLER

Henry Miller, who will be seen at the Opera house tomorrow night in H. Sheldon's remarkable play, "The Havoc," has created more widely known character types than any other famous actor in America. Mr. Miller has run the dramatic gamut from tragedy to comedy and from grim realism to picturesque romantic comedy. His new role in "The Havoc" is as far removed from the tragic picture of a man in "The Only Way," as is his rollicking guardsman in "Arroyo of the Guards," an anti-theater to his rugged, virile Stephen Ghent in "The Great Divide."

Fifteen years ago Henry Miller achieved success in Shakespearean roles, proving himself equally at home in the light as well as the serious characters of the great English dramatist's famous plays. Many playgoers will remember his Petruchio to Marie Antoinette's Katherine in "The Taming of the Shrew," which came as a genuine surprise to critics, who remembered his telling work in former productions of Shakespearean tragedy.

Chosen by Daniel Frohman for the position of leading man in the celebrated Lyceum Theater Stock company in New York, Mr. Miller scored after hit in romantic, sentimental comedies. After a few seasons at the Lyceum, he plunged into pure farce and won success in such rollicking comedies as "All the Comforts of Home." Before the critics had a chance to definitely classify him as a farceur, Mr. Miller accepted the position of leading man in Charles Frohman's Empire Theater Stock company in New York, and confined his efforts entirely to high comedy and comedies of manner.

His first starring venture was made in "Heartcase," a costumed farce-romance of "The Music Master," and by the same author. This time the critic announced that Henry Miller had just ceased to be a source of worry to the classifiers. He belonged in the list of actors of serious comedy, who make audiences mingle tears with their laughter. This satisfactory solution of the Miller puzzle received rude jolt when a year later, Henry Miller, in "The Only Way," became a reigning dramatic sensation.

which outlived many so-called musical entertainments since it was originally produced fourteen years ago, comes to the Opera house Monday, in entirely new dress. The piece is the most humorous exposition of New York life since the days of Harrigan and Hart. The fact that the comedy has endured as long as it has is due to the fact that the characters are drawn from actual life. They are flesh and blood creations, who dwell in an atmosphere of wit, melody and song. There is not a dull moment in the piece. The action is incessant,

It is a comedy of a week's quarantine of a dinner party, and of it the New York World said: "It is a veritable conspiracy of fun, with never a dull second. It convulses its audience." The Chicago Journal called it "hilariously funny," and said it "started a safe laughter that blew into the curtain call." While the Boston American pronounced it "overwhelmingly funny," said the Philadelphia Press: "It has all its predecessors looking foolish."

"Seven Days" will be seen at the Opera house Tuesday. Seats will be placed on sale this morning.

CLASSY VAUDEVILLE BILL ENDS TONIGHT

Tonight ends the engagement of one of the most popular bills in a long time at the Majestic and those who have not seen it should do so. The list of good things includes Brown & Cooper, in a musical novelty; "On a Side Street," a fine sketch of Gotham life; Adeline Francis, "the graphophone girl," in a most original and entertaining number; Robinson & La Favor, bounding barrel comedians; the Majestic comedians, showing the fine Revue, "The Rose and the Dagger," also "The Stolen Policeman," a comic, and the concert orchestra program.

It is an hour and a half of solid entertainment, refined and diversified vaudeville that is excellent nowhere.

THEODORE LORCH IN RETURN ENGAGEMENT

Opening on next Wednesday matinee, October 10, and running three days only in the week, the Lorch Stock company will present for the first time in Colorado Springs Charles Dickens' "Oliver Twist." Miss Cecil Fay will be seen in the title role, a part most fitting to her line of work. Mr. Lorch will portray the character of Bill Sikes, being a part suited to him as "Bud" Larch in "The Lieutenant and the Cowboy," which he has made such a hit in. James Hawley, as the Artful Dodger, will, without doubt, make a decided hit in the part, as he has made thousands laugh this summer. Camille Lewis, George L. Graves, Fred Doty, Thurza Roby, William E. Daves and Edward Robinson have in their respective roles characters most suited to them. As many press agents write, "each and every member seem to be cut out for their parts in Oliver Twist."

"Oliver Twist" is presented by Mr. Lorch and company three days only, as Monday, Tuesday and Saturday are taken by road attractions, hence the company will play Cripple Creek and Victor on road show dates. On week after next the company will open on Tuesday, October 17, and run the week through, with matinee days Wednesday and Saturday. Prices never change.

CRACKERJACK SHOW TO OPEN TOMORROW

In plain, if slangy English, it is a crackerjack show which opens a week's engagement at the Majestic tomorrow—a show which F. W. W., the noted theatrical critic, has pronounced the best balanced vaudeville offering seen in Denver in months, which is high praise from such a source. To make it a little more plain, there are four acts of more than ordinary excellence, a Rex photoplay that is exceptional, a comic motion picture and the concert orchestra program which, as all Majestic patrons know, plays a large part in the popularity of the Majestic. The list of good things is in detail something like this:

Alice Hanson and Gladys Bijou, two dainty girls who have literally been stopping the show at Denver the past week. They sing and dance delightfully, ring in a bunch of comedy that is in a class by itself and have personalities that would "put the act over," even if there were nothing to it.

Beatrice Ingham and her players, with Grace Gibbons as the star, presenting Porter Emerson Brown's "The Duchess," a sketch the scene of which is laid on the fourth floor of a cheap New York boarding house. It is rich. Probst, the great imitative whistler, last seen here two years ago, with a series of bird song imitations accompanied by pictures of the birds he imitates thrown on the screen. Always popular.

Random Brothers, European comedy acrobats, in a riotously funny act with a "burlesque boxing bout that is a roof-raiser."

The "Mysticope," showing a new Rex film in which wonderful seashore scenic effects are produced, also a comic.

Concert orchestra music, under direction of Prof. George Hockenberger. All for 10, 20 and 30 cents. Performances at 2:30, 7:30 and 9:10.

A PEASANT'S APPRECIATION OF MAC DOWELL

Augusta Cottlow, who is to play in the supplementary series of the Musical club's artist recitals, spent last summer in Friedrichroda in the Thuringen. She relates an amusing incident of her stay there.

One day while practicing the "Norse Sonata" by MacDowell she was absorbed and interested in her work, that she did not notice the door of her room being softly opened, until hearing an unusual sound she turned around, and there was Frau Storch, one of the favorite fruit vendors of the vicinity, making her feet fly in a peasant dance to characteristic lilts of the third movement of the sonata, and this, too, in spite of her 60 years and the heavily-laden basket of fruit on her back which in her excitement she had forgotten to remove.

The perspiration was streaming from under the big woolen turban, which all old Thuringian peasant women

A few days later Miss Cottlow attended the annual "Trachtenfest," or costume festival of the peasants from all parts of the Thuringen under the patronage of the Duchess of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha. Over 600 peasants were assembled in their various gaily colored costumes, making the effect of a vast operatic scene, and all sorts of competitive games and dances were indulged in. The Grand Duchess, dressed in a gorgeous peasant costume, distributing the prizes to the winners. The village to which Frau Storch belonged was one of the fortunate ones, and the merry old lady, as soon as she saw the pianist pointed her out to her neighbors as the young lady who played such beautiful music for her to dance by.

Rapid Advance in Construction of Modern War Vessels Leaves Many Too Small to Use

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—When the war between Turkey and Italy is over it is expected the former country will immediately cast about to secure a navy strong enough to enable her to make some use of her magnificent army, now practically impotent. The American navy department stands ready to furnish almost any such country with a ready-made navy of respectable strength, though not of the latest type. It agrees to be willing to authorize the transaction.

The whole fleet of ironclads that distinguished itself in the Spanish-American war is now practically obsolete, according to a high standard prevailing in the modern navy. Sampson's flagship, Brooklyn, even the battleships Oregon, Iowa, Indiana and the like, while all in excellent condition are no longer regarded as fit for service in the first line of battle.

The older ships are too good to be broken up or dismantled, and have been put in a secondary class. The navy department would gladly sell them to another nation and could get a good price for them. But the department is unwilling to do so unless congress will authorize the money realized from their sale to be applied to the construction of new battleships.

The funds involved are those held up by the loss of the toll call from the record of the passage of house bill number 200 in the late session. The hearing was formerly set for October 9.

When Costigan stepped into the water, the crowd took up a cheer, that ran clear along the beach. He began to swim as easily as any boy in the surf. Far out to the last lifeline, he paddled and then back again.

More than ninety years ago Costigan swam in the East river. He has seven children, 14 grandchildren, and several great-grandchildren.

PRESERVE THE BIRDS

From the Mount Olivet Advance. Isn't it passing strange that whenever any rare bird finds its way to this section that some fellow handy with an old shotgun must go running for the innocent and beautiful? The heron brought to town Tuesday is a case in point. We do not think it cruelty so much as thoughtlessness that leads to this wanton destruction. If let alone, numerous birds of every species, seen here only at rare intervals, would make their homes along our creeks and around our ponds, thus beautifying and enlivening nature with their joyful presence.

Many Subcommittees Named for Dry Farming Convention

The heads of all committees of the Dry Farming congress met with the members of the executive committee at a luncheon at the Antlers hotel yesterday, and put things to going for the big gathering in this city, October 16. It seems that the business men are beginning to be interested now, and realize the magnitude of the work before them.

Dr. A. C. Magruder was named as chairman of the committees on reception and accommodation of guests. He was authorized to select a reception committee of 200 from the membership of the Chamber of Commerce. It is to be known as a Chamber of Commerce committee, and wear a badge to that effect. Each member also will have packages of a four-page pamphlet that will be issued, containing all information a visitor may need. It will tell them of the places of interest, how to get there, the rates and fares authorized by the city council and county commissioners. The reception committee will go on duty Sunday morning, October 15, and will no doubt be kept busy for several days. It will be voluntary work.

The accommodations committee and the reception committee will work jointly with Dr. Magruder. The accommodations committee will have charge of the work of housing and caring for visitors and providing for their comfort generally.

Senator Mark Skinner was selected chairman of the committee on halls and supplies. It will attend to securing meeting places for the various gatherings and see to it that they are ready and supplied with working materials.

Public Safety Committee.

A. J. Lawton, city commissioner, was named chairman of the committee on public safety, to work with the police in every way. It will arrange for lighting the depots and railroad yards and properly policing them. Quite a number of delegations are coming in special trains, and some of the members will live in the cars. A number of private cars also will be in the yards, so that they must be kept safe. The sanitary parking of the cars will be attended to properly. The committee, working with the city police department, will look after policing the exposition and the depots.

Charles T. Wilder, editor of The Gazette, was made chairman of a committee on press entertainment. There will be many magazine and newspaper writers here during the congress, and it was decided to offer them some special form of entertainment, to be agreed upon later. The Martin cottage at 125 North Nevada avenue has been engaged for press headquarters. It is conveniently located between Temple theater and the Presbyterian church, where the chief meetings will be held, and along the route of the exposition. It will be fitted up with tables, typewriter service, typewriters, etc., for the use of the writers.

During the luncheon, Prof. W. C. Palmer of North Dakota Agricultural college made a short talk in which he declared that the dry farming movement is the greatest thing in the world, bringing the dry lands to productive agriculture is better than finding a new continent to exploit, he said.

CRIPPLE CREEK MINES

Special to The Gazette

CRIPPLE CREEK, Oct. 5.—A rich strike for the Stratton estate has been made in the American Eagles mine on Bull hill, by Charles Stratton, a sub-lessee of the Colorado Mines Investment company.

By continuation of the drift on the main Eagles vein, north from the shaft at the eleventh level—1,160 feet from surface—Stratton and his partners have entered a new shoot and are breaking ore from a four-foot vein, that will ship as broken at two ounces gold to the ton. The screenings and sorted rock will return values of not less than five ounces gold or $100 to the ton. A shipment of the higher grade, however, will not be made for some days as the lessees are leaving the richer ore standing.

The Colorado Mines Investment company has also opened up a shoot of mining grade ore at the ninth level, and Superintendent C. G. Jackson is confident that as the shoot is developed higher values will obtain. There are 12 sets of sublessees engaged in the exploitation of the ground covered in the lease and about three cars a week are loaded out for consignment to and treatment at the Portland mill at Colorado City.

Good Ore From Specimen.

The Specimen mine, another Stratton estate property, is producing ore of better than average grade, and lessees on the Logan, Favorite, Star of Bethlehem, Garfield, Grouse, in the Bull hill group of mines, are also producing.

Anchorage Leland.

Dump ore from the Anchorage Leland is moved at the rate of from 50 to 75 tons daily. The ore treated at one of the Colorado City mills is of low grade, but as no sorting is necessary, profits accrue to the company.

Roosevelt Tunnel.

The El Paso Gold Mining company has planned to extend the cross cut to the C. K. N. vein at the deep drainage tunnel level, in the belief that the lead encountered is not the vein sought. The C. K. N. vein, it is believed, has failed and that the strike reached was not the vein sought. Work in the heading of the tunnel will commence on Saturday. Superintendent Fyler has selected his men and when work starts new tunnel driving records may be made.

NEW YORK MARKET

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—Trading in the stock market today was almost the lightest of any full session in several weeks. The drift was downward at the outset, but losses were soon followed by recoveries, and the final dealings, when prices were at their best, resulted in numerous substantial gains.

A mildly optimistic interview, attributed to the guiding spirit of the Great Northern and Northern Pacific roads, was helpful to those issues, and the prolongation of the labor troubles on the Harriman lines was without adverse effect on Union Pacific and subsidiary lines. In fact, the support accorded Union Pacific throughout the session was of the most impressive sort. Sporadic selling of the steel shares was probably responsible for the early depression, which was fully offset by the extensive buying of the steel shares in the final hour.

Copper stocks were fairly steady on reports that domestic demand for the metal is on the increase. Western Union held its recent rise and American Beet Sugar and United States Rubber were active and strong on board room gossip of a prospective dividend disbursement, which, in the case of rubber, was later confirmed.

There were unofficial intimations that the "reconstruction" plan of the American Tobacco company will be before the court tomorrow, and the various issues of that corporation were both active and strong. The best opinion in the financial districts is that some week-end might elapse ere the tobacco company emerges from its present legal entanglement.

The most noteworthy railroad report submitted was that of the Louisville & Nashville for the year ended June 30, last, showing earnings of 14 1/2 per cent on the outstanding stock, despite a loss of almost $2,000,000.

The bond market was steady, with greatest activity in American Tobacco Co. 6s. Total sales, par value, $3,162,000.

United States government bonds were unchanged on call.

CHICAGO MARKET

CHICAGO, Oct. 5.—An all-around advance in the price of grain came about today because of a return of wet weather over a belt many hundred miles in extent. Wheat gained 1/4c to 3/4c, corn, 1/4c to 3/4c, and oats, 1/4c to 3/4c. The final hog products varied from last night's level to 15c additional cost.

Especially as to wheat, the appearance of rain in the Canadian northwest, along with a prediction of frost, had much to do with the trade at large. Fear of frost in the Argentine republic, cut considerable figure, too, as an element favoring the bulls. It also developed that there were a good deal bigger sales of cash wheat locally than had been made public, world shipments were light, and flour mills reported a gratifying demand. Altogether, the outlook from the start seemed to spell retreat for the bears.

In the December option, top and bottom limits for the day were 98 1/2c and 97 1/2c@97 3/4c, with the close 98 1/2c@98 3/4c compared with 24 hours before.

In addition to the wet weather, corn was helped by bullish news regarding the Russian crop. December ranged from 64 1/2c@64 3/4c to 65 1/2c, closing steady 1/2c up at 65c. Cash grades were strong. No. 2 yellow finished at 71 1/2c@72c.

Oats receipts were expected to show a falling off, owing to the unsettled weather. December fluctuated from 47 1/2c to 48 1/2c, and in the end was 48 1/2c@49c.

Buying tended to strengthen provisions. When trading ceased, pork was 1-5c dearer, and other products unchanged, but no not to exceed 1/4c at the outside.

DID NOT USURP POWER OF HIS OFFICE IN CANAL PROJECT, SAYS ROOSEVELT

NEW YORK, Oct. 5. Theodore Roosevelt has an article on "How the United States Acquired the Right to Dig the Panama Canal," in the current number of Outlook. Mr. Roosevelt discusses statements which have been made from time to time that he acted in an unconstitutional manner and usurped authority in connection with the Panama project and he upholds the regularity of the proceedings throughout.

Mr. Roosevelt says that his messages to congress set forth in full and in detail every essential fact connected with the various phases of the acquisition of the Panama canal. He adds:

"The simple fact was that when the interest of the American people imperatively demanded that a certain act should be done and I had the power to do it, I did it unless it was specifically prohibited by law. Instead of refusing to do it unless I could find some provision of law which rendered it imperative that I should do it. In other words I gave the benefit of the doubt to the people of the United States and not to any group of bandits, foreign or domestic, whose interests happened to be adverse to those of the people of the United States.

"In my judgment history had taught the lesson that the president has very great powers if he chooses to exercise those powers; but that if he is a timid or selfish man, afraid of responsibility and afraid of risks, he can, of course, manufacture ingenious excuses for failure to exercise them.

"At a great crisis in American history, Mr. Buchanan had shown himself to belong to the latter type of president. Mr. Lincoln had represented the other type, the type which gave the people the benefit of the doubt which was not afraid to take responsibility which used in large fashion for the good of the people, the great powers of a great office.

Would Have Been Easy to Shirk.

"In October and November, 1903, events occurred on the Isthmus of Panama which enabled me and which made it my highest duty to the people of the United States to carry out the provisions of the law of congress. I did carry them out and the canal is now being built because of what I thus did. It is also perfectly true that if I had wished to shirk my responsibility, if I had been afraid of doing my duty, I could have pursued a course which would have been technically defensible, which would have prevented criticism of the kind that has been made and would have left the United States no nearer building the canal at this moment than it had been for the preceding half century. If I had observed a judicial inactivity about what was going on at the isthmus, had let things take their course and had then submitted an elaborate report to congress, I would have furnished the opportunity for much masterly debate in congress which would now be going on and the canal would still be 50 years in the future.

"The interests of the American people demanded that I should act just exactly as I did act, and I would have taken the action I actually did take even though I had been certain that to do so meant my prompt retirement from public life at the next election; for the only thing which makes it worth while to hold a big office is taking advantage of the opportunities the office offers to do some big thing that ought to be done and is worth doing."

Concerning the opposition of Colombia, Mr. Roosevelt says:

"I felt very strongly that the position that the one-time Secretary of State Cass had taken nearly 50 years before was the proper position and that the United States would be deterred in its duty if it permitted Colombia to prevent the building of the Panama canal.

Prepared For Extreme Step.

"I was prepared if necessary to submit to congress recommendation that we should proceed with the work in spite of Colombia's opposition and indeed had prepared a rough draft of a message to that effect when events on the isthmus took such shape as to change the problem.

"There was no need of any outsider to excite revolution in Panama. There were dozens of leaders on the isthmus already doing their best to excite revolution. It was not a case of lighting a fuse that would fire a mine. There were dozens of such fuses being lit all the time. It was simply a case of its ceasing to be the duty of the United States to stamp on these fuses or longer to act in the interest of those who had become the open and malignant foes of the United States and of civilization and of the world at large.

"We recognized the republic of Panama. In consequence, Panama has for eight years enjoyed a degree of peace and prosperity which it had never before enjoyed during its four centuries of troubled existence.

"Be it remembered that unless I had acted exactly as I did act there would now be no Panama canal. It is folly to assert devotion to an end and at the same time to condemn the only means by which the end can be achieved. Every man who has at any stage opposed or condemned the action actually taken in acquiring the right to dig the canal has really been the opponent of every effort that could ever have been made to dig the canal."

HOW DO YOU READ?

By THOMAS TAPPER.

A man who takes pleasure in checking up what others do tells me this:

"Of the people who read in the subway, street cars and elevated trains (and nearly everybody does), the men read newspapers, the women and girls read books. And, as a rule," he went on, "they read good books. In the last week I have seen women and girls with such books as 'St. Gibbie,' 'Ivanhoe,' several recent novels, two books by Kipling, three by Dickens and a lot of others I never heard of; so it seems to me that, while some good books are read by the traveling public, more of the modern, average order are favorites. But they may be good books for all that.

"It is curious," he continued, "what a great deal of reading one can do going to and coming from work. Though I think more is done in the morning, when the mind is fresh, than at night when mind and body are tired.

"If a girl spends 20 minutes in a street car in the morning, she can read easily 2,000 to 4,000 words, or 12 to 20 pages of 250 words each, barring accidents, of course. If she has to stand or give her seat to a weary gentleman who does not like to see a lady seated in a car, or, if somebody keeps stepping on her feet, the amount she can read is reduced. But an average of even 12 pages a day is nearly 4,400 pages a year, or about 15 volumes of 300 hundred pages each.

"This number of books would do anybody good who would read in the morning, and think it over in the evening on the way home.

"There ought to be a printed slip in every book, telling us why and how to read. It should go something like this:

"A bag of oats in one barn will not feed a horse in another barn. The oats must be put before the horse, and if he wants them (which he generally does) he must bend his head and take them into his mouth, lifting it now and then that he may have time to throw them into the condition that makes the first stages of food. Time and the digestive organs do the rest.

"This operation is not to be done once, but often, that the horse may live.

"So a book in one place is of no use to a man in another place. They must be brought together. And when they are together he must bend his head and take it in, by mental mouthfuls, raising his head now and then to chew what he takes in, so as to put it in the shape of the first stage of food.

"Then he must wait for the mental digestion to turn the food into strength. And this operation of the man, like that of the horse, is not to be done once, but often. Then the man grows mentally strong as the horse grows physically strong.

"One of the worst phrases that a reader can put forth, is that one which says, 'take it in at a glance.' No one can do this with a book that is worth while. One might just as well try to force oats down a horse's throat with a blower.

"If a man chewed over his reading as many people would soon find their flavor."

Another shipment of "Double Service" house dresses

So popular have these dresses been that we have scarcely been able to sell a dozen has just been received and is ready for Friday and Saturday. Sell at 2.50; buying the large number we take we are able to place them on special sale at

This garment may be used as a dress, kimono or apron. The double-service dresses are adaptable to several uses. As a dress the garments are complete—really a 4 in 1 dress, comprising skirt, waist and 2 aprons. Made with low collars and square necks. As a kimono the garment has many special features not found in ordinary kimono. As an apron the double-service garment gives perfect protection to any valuable worn underneath it. The double-service garment is a complete dress (it is not an apron) but it has the additional advantage that it may be used like a blanket for protection. Double-service garments are a quality basis—the best of materials and work entering into their manufacture. These new style house dresses are cheaper. Every woman is interested in the new ideas in wearing apparel, therefore, another large lot of these dresses, and while the supply may possibly hold off disappointment.

NO BUTTONS OR HOOKS AND EYES.

Two large snaps on the belt—as shown above—hold the entire garment in place. Under this arrangement the garment is adjusted to three different sizes.

EASY TO PUT ON.

Without a doubt the easiest and quickest to put on, of any house dress made. On and off like a coat—no pulling over the head or stepping out of the skirt.
